Sunday 7th August

From Father Brian

I will be away on my summer holiday this weekend until Wednesday 10th August. I am grateful to Fr Desmond Wilson who, as well as making a mission appeal on behalf of the Holy Ghost Fathers, is celebrating the Sunday Masses. I know you will make him most welcome and be as generous as you can. Next weekend Fr. Max will be here looking after the parish in my absence. I am also very grateful to Fr David Annear who, although on a short break, has kindly offered to celebrate Mass on Tuesday and Wednesday of this coming week. Take care and I will see you when I get back.

REFLECTION

I am sure it will come as no surprise for you to learn that when I am away on holiday, I find a church where I can go to Mass on a Sunday; I'm sure you do the same. When I visit other churches, I am always interested to see the bulletin, because occasionally there are useful nuggets of information, or something amusing to read. Here is something I found when on holiday a couple of years ago, which I think is worth sharing, especially when we consider that 'our' money and 'our' time are not in reality ours at all, but are gifts from God, from whom we receive everything we have and are:

Funny, isn't it?

Funny how a £10 note looks so big when you take it to church, but so small when you take it to the supermarket or filling station.

Funny how long worshipping God for an hour can seem, but how quickly 60 minutes of leisure, sport or 'net-surfing' passes.

Funny how we can't think of anything to say when we pray, but have no difficulty thinking of things to talk about with a friend.

Funny how we get thrilled when a football game goes into extra time, but we complain when a sermon is extended for a few extra minutes.

Funny how hard it is to read a few verses of the Bible each day, but how easy it is to sit and read 100 pages of a best-selling novel.

Funny how people want to get a front seat at a concert or at the theatre, but scramble to get a back seat at church.

Funny, isn't it?

Fr John Gilbert.

Confirmation

If you are or will be school year 8 or above in September and would like to prepare for the sacrament of confirmation, please let Fr Brian know.

Sick

Please pray for those in the Parish who are sick or housebound.
