Shoebox Appeal

You can tell it's August as we launch the Shoebox Appeal in Helston! Leaflets available at the back of church for those wishing to prepare a Christmas shoebox.

Keeping Fr Brian informed!

If you go into hospital or become housebound because of sickness please get someone to let the parish office know so that Holy Communion may be brought to you.

Posters in the Porch

If you wish to have a poster or notice displayed in the porch please see Fr Brian (Falmouth) or Fr John (Helston) for authorization. Unauthorized posters will be removed.

Thank you

Sam Micciche would like to thank everyone for their good wishes and prayers during his recent unwellness.

How we receive Holy Communion

A question has been asked about 'intinction' ,dipping the host in the chalice, and as canon law states this is not permitted.

[104.] The communicant must not be permitted to intinct the host himself in the chalice, nor to receive the intincted host in the hand. As for the host to be used for the intinction, it should be made of valid matter, also consecrated; it is altogether forbidden to use non-consecrated bread or other matter.

Next weekend, 27th/28th August, we have our annual retiring collection for the Catholic Children's Society. The Society supports local disadvantaged families in their time of need. Bishop Mark's message of support for this appeal can be found on prayer cards in the giving envelopes. Please take one as a gift from the Society and if you can make a donation next week, please do so in the envelope provided. Alternatively you can donate via the charity's website www.ccsplymouth.org.uk or by texting CCSP16 £5 to 70070 via your mobile phone.

From Fr Brian

This week I am due to meet Fr John Gilbert to discuss plans for Falmouth and Helston after he leaves for Truro. It is obvious that changes will take place and I will do my best to ensure that the pastoral and spiritual needs of all are met.

This is an opportunity for us all to unite and share our time and talents to help the life of our Christian community to continue and flourish. I promise to consult and keep you in the picture. May God bless you all and thank you for your prayers and support.

REFLECTION

“The work of the soul's purification neither may nor can end save with life itself; do not then let us be disheartened by our imperfections, our very perfection lies in diligently contending against them and it is impossible so to contend without seeing them, or to overcome without meeting them face to face. Our victory does not consist in being insensible to them, but in not consenting to them. Now to be afflicted by our imperfections is certainly not to consent thereto, and for the furtherance of humility it is needful that we sometimes find ourselves worsted in this spiritual battle, wherein, however, we shall never be conquered until we lose either life or courage. Moreover, imperfections and venial sins cannot destroy our spiritual life, which is only to be lost through mortal sin; consequently we have only need to watch well that they do not imperil our courage. David continually asks the Lord to strengthen his heart against cowardice and discouragement; and it is our privilege in this war that we are certain to vanquish so long as we are willing to fight.”

From “Introduction to the Devout Life” by St Francis de Sales.

Fr John Gilbert.

Farewell Fr John!

As you are probably aware, Fr John will be leaving us soon to move to Truro and so we will be holding a get together on Thursday 1st September at 7 pm in the hall at Helston. Everyone is very welcome. Please bring a plate of food to share.
