On Thursday 6th July at 3pm in Truro Catholic Church Hall and again at 7pm in Helston Catholic Church Hall we will be holding meetings addressed by senior representatives of SPUC on their pro-life work over the last 50 years, since the passing of the Abortion Act.

Key Questions SPUC will be answering –
How badly can abortion affect a woman's mental health?

Are doctors miscertifying women for abortions?
Are medical professionals able to exercise conscientious objection to abortion?

There will also be plenty of time for all the questions we may want to ask.

Refreshments provided. Free of charge. All very welcome.

St Mary's School News

We've had a fabulous 'hot' week in school with so much going on! Our diversity week began with a workshop for each class from Daya who talked to the children about her Indian culture and Sikhism. The children thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to get dressed up in Indian costumes and they learnt so much. We're looking forward to welcoming Daya back to St Mary's again soon. She was so complimentary about how well behaved and engaged the children were from the moment she arrived at the school which is great news.

Joe Morretti, an Apple Distinguished Trainer, worked with all classes using the i-pads and focused on coding and modelling. Parents too enjoyed a session with Joe looking at Showbie.

Lunches this week were from around the world and Class 6 helped make American burgers with Mrs Slater, our school cook. They were delicious!

Mrs Sue Fazakerley-Owen, our Reception Class link governor visited the school on Tuesday and met with the new children and their parents who will be joining our school family in September.

Judging by the photos Class 2 showed me this morning, they loved the 'Kurious Kritters' workshop.

Today of course is a FOSMs dress down day to collect tombola items. We're all looking forward to our Summer Fete which takes place next week after school on the 30th June. Please do come along to help raise funds for our school!

From Father Brian

My sincere thanks to all those who contributed to our lovely Confirmation Mass last Sunday. It was a wonderful celebration and the presence of the Holy Spirit was so powerful. Special thanks to Sister Damian, Hilary, Mary and Martyn who prepared the young people so well. Grateful thanks to those who prepared the cake and the refreshments in the hall after the Mass and to Jack Orders for preparing the service booklets. Of course a huge thank you to Bishop Mark for coming and celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Point to Ponder

When we are generous in welcoming people and sharing something with them – some food, a place in our home, our time – not only do we no longer remain poor: We are enriched
