This weekend

The Church celebrates 'Sea Sunday' when we remember and pray for seafarers and their families. At all the Masses there will be a retiring collection for the Apostleship of the Sea who provide practical and pastoral care to all seafarers regardless of nationality, belief or race. As you know our parish has close connections with the Apostleship of the Sea and members of our community are closely involved with it.

HELSTON Tea and Coffee

Tea and coffee is served in the hall after Sunday Mass. Everyone is very welcome and we would love to meet any visitors to hear your stories.

Coffee Morning

The Life and Experience of being a seafarer

Our AoS Chaplain in Cornwall, John Pinhay, will be giving a talk on Tuesday 10th July at 2 pm in the church hall at Falmouth, speaking about his work and advocacy for seafarers in need. All very welcome.

'Father Frank Thompson MHM, RIP. Father Frank was Diocesan Organiser for APF/Missio (red boxes). He visited Truro to celebrate a Mass of appreciation to all members in July each year which was usually followed by a cup of tea and a short mission film. His last visit was about five years ago when failing health forced him to give up travelling. He died in February this year a few months short of the 53rd anniversary of his ordination on 10th July 1965.

All members and friends are invited to a memorial Mass in Truro on Tuesday 10th July at 6.30 pm. parking is extremely limited in the church carpark BUT in the evenings, after 5 pm, the Council Car Park just along the road from the Catholic church in St Austell Street is FREE! It is often referred to as the "Shoppers' Carpark" but it's official name is Old Bridge Street Carpark. Garras Wharf carpark (the one adjacent to Tesco) is free from 4 pm every evening. Please attend if you possibly can to celebrate this great priest's long service to the Missions and to those who support APF/Missio.'

Intentional Disciples

Our July meeting will be held in the hall on Thursday 19th July at 7pm in the hall. Everyone is welcome. Many Catholics seem to believe that "sharing faith evangelisation" is the task of just a few and certainly not for me! The reality is of course that every Catholic is called to do this. We all have the gift of faith, the Holy Spirit has been poured into our hearts. Therefore we have, each one of us, every thing we need to be a disciple making disciple. The first step in learning how is to say "yes" and attend one of our meetings. See you there!

Share the Journey

Pope Francis has launched Share the Journey, a new global campaign to stand up for the rights of people on the move. The Catholic community has stepped up in support. We're walking round the world to show world leaders that they must step up too. They must agree ambitious new UN agreements on refugees and migration in 2018.

So, we are joining in too – join us at St Mary's church hall, Falmouth at 2 pm on Wednesday 11th July for a short 1 hour walk in our local area. For those who wish a short walk round Kimberley Park can be arranged. We will be joined by our friends from Falmouth & Penryn Churches Together. Details from Mary Bradley 01326 312768

Watch the powerful video from Bishop Mark O'Toole encouraging the Catholic community & all people of goodwill to take part in Pope Francis' Share the Journey campaign, calling on governments protect the human dignity of people on the move, refugees and migrants who are forced to leave their homes due to war, persecution, natural disasters and poverty: <https://cafodplymouth.wordpress.com/>

From Father Brian

This weekend we celebrate Sea Sunday when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Without them we would not have most of the items we buy in the shops. The retiring collection is for the Apostleship of the Sea, the Church's official maritime welfare agency. It supports seafarers both practically and spiritually. This collection is vital to enable it to continue its work, so please give generously and remember seafarers in your prayers. Thank you.

Point to Ponder

The sea hath no king but God alone.
(Dante)

Congratulations

To James Walter Joseph Green and Lamorna Elizabeth Laity Green who are to be baptised this Sunday in Falmouth after the 10.45 am Mass.
