Please come and join us and share in the discussion as we look at the latest facts and figures of the refugee crisis, including some information about how some agencies and individuals are already responding. ### From Fr Brian

Father John Gilbert will celebrate his last Mass at Helston and Mullion on Sunday 4th September 2016. Therefore from Sunday 11th September Sunday Mass will no longer be celebrated at Mawnan Smith and Mullion. However, it is planned that Mass will be celebrated at Mawnan Smith at 10.00 am on a Thursday and at Mullion on a Saturday at 10.00 am. I am very conscious that the departure of Father John and the ending of Sunday Mass at Mawnan Smith and Mullion will be distressing for many. Like many others we have to face the truth of fewer priests being available to serve our communities. We need to show understanding and unity in this time of change. We also need to support the church and the priests we have and to pray diligently for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. I promise to do my very best to serve the pastoral needs of the all and to encourage the people of our parish to contribute to the life of our parish community. God bless you all.

REFLECTION

When we have a real sense of who God is, we will always acknowledge his greatness and our lowliness. That is true humility - not a mock sense of unworthiness, (false humility), but a healthy grounded-ness. Only the fool allows himself to become puffed up with pride. Foolish people are so full of their own self-importance that they forget who God is. Such people commit idolatry, for they effectively make themselves into gods. It is the poor, the lowly and the needy who remind us of the truth about us all, namely that we each depend upon God. We are all poor in his sight. The wise person, then, is the one who relies on God, rather than on themselves.

Many things can take the place of God in our lives: fame, popularity, wealth, power, influence. These are all things which will pass; there is no lasting security in them. As Jesus spells out so clearly, true, lasting happiness lies in associating with those who are less well-off; with the needy and the helpless. It comes from doing what we can to help them - not in hope of a reward, but simply because they remind us that we are all human; we are "all in the same boat." So what is important is to remember our duty to one another as brothers and sisters in Christ. We need also to be reminded of the absolute importance of acknowledging God as God, for, "He made us, we belong to him..." Psalm 99 (100).

Fr John Gilbert
