Learning to be an Intentional Disciple?

In many ways this idea can be a difficult one. It could give the impression that "sharing faith-evangelisation" is the task of just a few in our parish. The reality is of course, that every Catholic is called to do this. It is a crucial part of the vocation of being a disciple. It is part and parcel of the gift of faith; the Holy Spirit has been poured into our hearts (Romans 5:5). Therefore we have, each one of us, everything we need to be a disciple making disciple. The first step in learning how, is to say "yes" and attend the next meeting of the Parish group of Intentional Disciples on 21st September at 7.00 pm in the hall at Falmouth. Will you say "yes" NS JOIN US? CALL Chris Ohly to find out more (01326 250569)

From Father Brian

In the second reading at this week's Sunday Mass St Paul tells that "Love is the one thing that cannot hurt your neighbour". As a parish, as a community in all our dealings with one another love, tolerance and understanding will always be at the forefront. As Christians we have a responsibility and a duty of care for each other.

Point to Ponder

When you talk, you are only repeating what you already know. But if you listen, you may learn something new.
