From Father Brian

After the Christmas season we return to the Gospel readings from Luke. Luke's Gospel vividly expresses the gentleness, love and compassion of Jesus, particularly to those on the margins of society. May the Gospel of Luke inspire us to have an active concern for all our neighbours

This weekend we celebrate Peace Day. We live in uncertain times where many people suffer acts of violence and experience war so we pray for peace, justice and understanding in our society and in our world.

Point to Ponder

We rise by lifting others

(Robert Ingersoll)

Please pray for Gil Beaton who died this week. May the Lord grant her eternal rest.

Diary Dates – we are all welcome at all events – both sides of the parish!
