Falmouth – Help Needed

Now that we are able to have Sunday Mass at Mawnan Smith we have had several of our readers move back there. We would very much appreciate some volunteers, guidance can be given. We would also appreciate volunteers for both our choirs.

Baby Beanie Hats - message from Helen Shanahan Many thanks to everyone who has knitted the red, amber and green baby beanie hats for the maternity unit. They are all beautifully knitted and just the right sizes for bigger and slightly smaller newborn babies. The 3 month project started on Nov 1st and staff and parents are getting the hang of it now, and most importantly, the hats flag up very clearly which babies (those in red and amber hats!) need the most care and support with feeding. I'll put out the bag for collecting any more completed hats after Mass every week for the next few weeks. Thank you all so much!

Helen's Wing Walk for CAFOD

Thank you for your support, so far Helen has raised just over £1,000, it's not too late to donate!

AOS Chocolate Bar Appeal

It is that time of the year when we ask that you think of the seafarers visiting our port over the Christmas period. We will be making up Christmas parcels towards the end of November and we like to include a bar of chocolate. The £1 bar is ideal as this fits nicely into the parcel. Our chocolate collection box will once again greet you as you enter the church. Many thanks in anticipation of your generosity. AOS Team Falmouth

From Father Brian

In today's Gospel Jesus criticizes the religious leaders for not practising what they preach, rather they seek personal honour, glory and status. May we avoid their mistakes by seeking to serve God humbly giving all praise and honour to God the Father through His Son Jesus Christ.

Point to Ponder

Pride makes us artificial and humility makes us real
Thomas Merton

Please pray for Kathleen Weaver who died last week, may the Lord grant her eternal rest.

Diary Dates – we are all welcome at all events – both sides of the parish!
