Both the Football and Netball teams have had a very successful start to the season. The football team are currently unbeaten having played 7 matches in the league so far. ### From Fr Brian

This Sunday is 'Remembrance Sunday'. We pray for and remember all those who gave their lives in the various wars and conflicts. We are grateful for their sacrifice that enables us to live in freedom and peace. At both morning Masses we will show our respect and gratitude

"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old. Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning we will remember them."
