Christmas Flowers

Next weekend at all Masses there will be a retiring collection for Christmas flowers. My grateful thanks to the ladies who donate and arrange the flowers throughout the year.

Book of Remembrance

November is a month when we especially remember in our prayers our departed loved ones. Available in our churches at Falmouth and Helston is a 'Book of Remembrance', in this we are invited to write the names of our departed loved ones and the books will be brought up to the altar at every Mass in November.

Falmouth – Help Needed

Now that we are able to have Sunday Mass at Mawnan Smith we have had several of our readers move back there. We would very much appreciate some volunteers, guidance can be given. We would also appreciate volunteers for both our choirs.

AOS Chocolate Bar Appeal

It is that time of the year when we ask that you think of the seafarers visiting our port over the Christmas period. We will be making up Christmas parcels towards the end of November and we like to include a bar of chocolate. The £1 bar is ideal as this fits nicely into the parcel. Our chocolate collection box will once again greet you as you enter the church.
Many thanks in anticipation of your generosity.

Quiet Day at Buckfast with Fr Christopher

On Saturday 2nd December in the Violet Evelyn Hall at the Southgate Retreat Centre. The subject of this Quiet Day is 'How to be peacemakers, not only at Christmas'. The day begins with tea & coffee at 10.00am and runs until 3.00pm. Mass will be celebrated as part of the day and there will be an opportunity for quiet prayer, group discussions and confession. The cost is £15 to include refreshments and a light lunch. Booking form available from office.

David Weaver and family

Would like to express their sincere thanks to everyone who attended Kathleen's requiem Mass last week and for all the cards, prayers and good wishes.

Collections

Parish last week: £1,188.76 including standing orders.

Christmas Hosts

The chaplaincy at Tremough need host families for international students or UK students who stay in Cornwall over the holidays to link with .

They are recruiting hosts who are willing to offer:
Christmas Eve supper (+ optional Midnight Mass/Evening Service)

Or

Christmas Day lunch (+ optional afternoon activity e.g. a walk)

If you are able to help please contact – Sacha Mustoe, chaplaincy administrator on 370744 or email chaplaincy@fxplus.ac.uk

HELSTON SHOEBOXES AND SHAWL MINISTRY

CONTRIBUTION TO LINK TO HOPE

Thank you so much to everyone who did shoeboxes this year. We managed to send 25 from Helston. A good effort.

As well as the shoeboxes The Helston Shawl Ministry sent 3 containers to Link to Hope, containing 100 scarves, 23 hats, 14 Lap blankets, 10 pairs of gloves, 2 headbands, 1 large shawl and 8 hand muffs. Well done girls.

HELSTON OPEN PARISH MEETING.

There will be an open parish meeting in the hall at Helston, after Sunday Mass on 26th November. Everyone is encouraged to attend.

The main topic will be the initial organisation of the Mass in February to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Consecration of St. Mary's. This Mass will be attended by Bishop Mark and previous parish priests. Also, if anyone has any comments or ideas on such topics as the general running of the Helston side of the parish, music, flowers or social events, please take this opportunity to come along.

From Father Brian

Sunday's Gospel reminds us that God has given us particular gifts and talents to share for His glory and to use for His holy church. The Gospel challenges us to examine ourselves to see how we use our gifts and talents for Jesus and His church. We cannot be passive or inactive Christians. God needs the gifts and contributions of each and every one of us.

Point to Ponder

Your talent is your obligation to the world.

Please Pray for Charles Brett who died recently, may the Lord grant him eternal rest. His funeral will be held on Monday 27th November at Mullion.

Diary Dates – we are all welcome at all events – both sides of the parish!
