World Youth Day

Whilst at World Youth Day there were many highlights, my personal favourite was the Vigil as it was very beautiful to see and be a part of and also because it put into perspective the size of the faith in this world with the amount of people there. I would like to thank each and every person who made it possible for us to go and who supported us with your prayers on our journey so we could have this experience of a lifetime.

Elwyn

Keeping Fr Brian informed!

Helston Shawl Ministry

are delighted to announce that they have given out in excess of 100 blankets, shawls and Twiddlemuffs . Our ministry goes on, and so anyone who knows of anyone who needs to feel loved and thought about, please let us know. We also have blankets for new born babies. Please contact Theresa Neal in Helston on 617641 or Mary Bradley in Falmouth on 312768.

How we receive Holy Communion

A question has been asked about 'intinction' ,dipping the host in the chalice, and as canon law states this is not permitted.

[104.] The communicant must not be permitted to intinct the host himself in the chalice, nor to receive the intincted host in the hand. As for the host to be used for the intinction, it should be made of valid matter, also consecrated; it is altogether forbidden to use non-consecrated bread or other matter.

Shoebox Appeal

You can tell it's August as we launch the Shoebox Appeal in Helston! Leaflets available at the back of church for those wishing to prepare a Christmas shoebox.

From Fr Brian

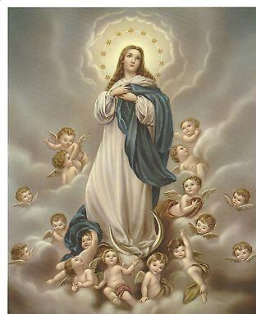

It is good to be back with you after my summer holiday. In the coming weeks our parish will face new challenges as Father John will be leaving for Truro. However, I am confident that if we are united and willing to share our time and gifts then our community will be effective and willing in sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

REFLECTION

After the great event of the Annunciation, we read that Mary went to visit her cousin Elizabeth. Then, after staying with her for three months, Mary “went back home” - back to ordinary daily living. It may seem incredible that a life that was for the most part so ordinary and uneventful should end in the glory of the Assumption; but this great Feast tells of a more incredible story. From earliest times Mary has been seen as a model of the Church; so that what is said of her often has a direct application for the Church as well. If she is body and soul in heaven, then it is the destiny of the Church - you and me - to share that same glory, if we remain faithful to the Lord.

If this is the case, then the events of our daily life, however mundane they seem to be, are in fact meant to be a preparation for our future destiny. It is not only through prayer and coming to Mass, but also through humble daily events, accepted as part of our loving service of God, that we are being ever more wonderfully fashioned as God’s children. On this Feast, then, Mary is indeed for us - “a great sign... in heaven.” A sign of hope that the lowly toil of daily life has eternal consequences. A sign of hope that Mary’s fondest wish is that we, her children, should be with her. A sign of hope that, as she is now, so we too shall be one day.

Fr John Gilbert.
