Year of the Word

We have the text of the excellent talks given by Fr Guy de Gaynesford and Fr Robbie Low on scripture which can be emailed to anyone who wants them from the office. Also, the talks which were enthusiastically received, have been recorded and are available on the Diocesan Website (<http://www.plymouth-diocese.org.uk>) and on Facebook (@plymouthdiocese on Facebook).

- 1) How Catholics Read the Bible
- 2) Christ in the Old Testament
- 3) The Fulfilment of the Covenant in the New Testament.

Let's use our 'lockdown' time profitably.

Helston and Mullion

DURING THIS TIME OF CRISIS...

1. The most important priority is to keep yourself, your loved ones and the community SAFE and HEALTHY.
2. Helston emergency volunteers – if you need help or can offer help please contact them at the guildhall 01326 565761.
3. Foodbank donations need to be left at the supermarkets, we will not be delivering.
4. Please be aware that, although Fr. Paul is under 70, he does have an underlying health condition which puts him into the “most vulnerable” category, so should be socially distancing or physically isolating himself (various terms are being used). Bearing this in mind, for their mutual safety, he will not be making any visits to residential homes or hospitals except in case of an extreme emergency. All are invited to keep in touch by telephone or other social media.
5. There will be a daily private mass in Helston at Mass intentions will still be accepted for these masses.
6. The Sacrament of Confession will be available upon request. Please ring the Presbytery for an appointment.
7. There is a great deal of useful and interesting material online.
Do think about joining our Facebook page: “Catholics on the Lizard Peninsula”. Some are wary about becoming involved in social media, but used sensibly there can be a lot of entertainment, education and enjoyment in it.
Keep an eye on the parish web page: falmouthcatholicchurch.org.uk for the latest news and information.
Many places (some in our Diocese) are offering live streaming of daily mass.
Ring Fr. Paul if you need help accessing any of the above.
8. For your one daily exercise you are welcome to use the presbytery garden or church grounds always ensuring you keep the required 10 feet apart.
9. Lastly, same as No. 1 – KEEP YOURSELF SAFE!

From Father Brian

As you may know by now Masses and pastoral gatherings have been suspended in the Diocese of Plymouth. Father Paul and I will continue to celebrate Mass without the faithful of the parish on a daily basis. This will ensure that all in the parish can join in spiritual communion with your priests.

The churches in Falmouth and Helston will remain open for solitary prayer only.

The parish office will be closed temporarily, however, Fr Brian and Fr Paul can still be contacted by phone or email.

All visits by the clergy to the sick and housebound have been suspended, the only exception is for the dying.

A bulletin will be issued but may not have much that is new.

A number of Masses are available on line including a daily one from our cathedral on the diocesan website, also evening prayer from the cathedral see www.plymouth-diocese.org.uk

This is a very difficult time for us all and we must all support and care for each other in spiritual and practical ways.

God bless you and may Our Lord and the intercession of Our Blessed Lady keep us all safe

Point to Ponder

On this Good Friday may we never forget the true meaning of Easter for when he was on the cross, we were on his mind.
