HELSTON & MULLION NEWS

Arrangements for Cecilia Kirkland's funeral: Celia will be received into St Mary's at 4 pm on Wednesday, 4th November, the funeral will be at 11.30 on Thursday 5th. All funerals are restricted to 30 worshippers (plus workers) so, regretfully, the funeral will be admission by ticket only. No restrictions apply to Wednesday evening, but our usual Thursday morning congregation will need to have a ticket if they wish to come to mass that day. Please speak to Fr Paul if you need one – when they're gone, they're gone!

Now that we are able to resume pastoral visiting in a limited way, may I once again ask if anyone is able to assist the present team in taking Holy Communion to the housebound? Volunteer(s) on the Lizard would be especially welcome.

All Souls Day (2nd Nov) falls on Monday week this year, so there will be an extra public mass at Helston at 11.00 on that day.

November is the month of the holy Souls. Do please fill in a slip at the back of each church with names of people you would like remembered at the altar during the month.

There have been no voices against last week's suggestions re. Christmas Services, i.e. that there should be a 6pm at Helston and an 8pm at Mullion on Thursday 24th (no morning mass that day) and a 10am at Helston on Christmas Day. So this is probably what will happen. Tickets have been printed and are currently being numbered. They will be available from 1st November.

FALMOUTH & MAWNAN SMITH NEWS

Good News!

Without compromising on the required social distancing we have managed to increase the seating capacity in Falmouth to 60. Hopefully this will be of help especially for Christmas.

First Holy Communion 2020

Once again, Father Brian apologizes that the children were unable to make their First Holy Communion. After consulting with the catechists, once the hall is open, hopefully by Christmas, we will complete their preparation through a short number of meetings in the hall. This will enable us to comply with social distancing, hopefully these children will make their First Holy Communion early in 2021.

Hopefully the children preparing for First Holy Communion in 2021 will begin their preparation at the normal venue of the school and make their First Holy Communion towards the end of May or early June.

First Holy Communion 2021

If you have a child who will be 8 years old by summer 2021, school year 3 or above, and you would like them to make their First Holy Communion next year please give their details to Fr Brian or through St Mary's School. We expect to have resolved the difficulties surrounding preparation by January when classes usually begin.

Readers at Falmouth

We are hoping to put together a very simplified rota and so if you are a reader (or would like to be) please send your details and the Mass(es) you will be attending to the office. As Sunday obligation is suspended it will cover all days of the week.

Sunday 10.30 am Mass at Falmouth

To avoid disappointment please could anyone wishing to attend this Mass make sure to arrive at church by 10.25 am at the latest as we are now having to turn people away as the church is full.

Chutney for Kanji

Susan has made her 'Spicy Apple & Onion Chutney with Sultanas' in aid of The Kanji Project charity, which supports a school and orphanage near the village of Kanji in Tamil Nadu, India.

If you would like to buy any please telephone 01326 259869 and we can arrange for it to be collected or delivered.

The Lord's Pantry Collecting Food for Those in need St. Mary's Falmouth and St Edwards Mawnan Smith

We are pleased now to be able to start our food collection in Falmouth again for distribution to our local food banks and to Simon House Hostel. St Edward's Mawnan collects for St. Petroc's and both churches really need your donations.

The Food Banks are helping many more people now who are suffering the indignity of being unable to have food for themselves or their families through job losses and unemployment etc. We are glad we can help in some little way.

So please bring an item of food for our basket, which will be out at all Masses. We will then deliver each week Non perishable food only are needed and no baked beans, soup or pasta in Falmouth.

Many thanks for your generosity.

Students

All students, regardless of where they are studying, are very welcome to our student mass here at the church. Fr Anthony the Falmouth and Exeter University Chaplain will say mass at 12:30 pm every Monday just for students.

All students are welcome to join us for Sea at Three. Fr Anthony and Fran Freeman will be on Gylly Beach every Wednesday from 3-4 pm where we can enjoy some cake and a socially distanced chat. We will be there whatever the weather!

NEWS FOR ALL 4 CHURCHES

Stella Maris Woolly Hat Appeal

As a team of ship visitors at Falmouth & Fowey we are planning to start visiting ships once again. Since the pandemic we have not been able to visit vessels as they come into the ports. We have now been supplied with PPE equipment from our headquarters. However, we are also under strict orders on how ship visiting will take place. We are not able to go onboard ship, but will handover gifts, faith materials and other practical items, such as woolly hats, at the gangways. Woolly hats are very welcomed especially from the seafarers from warmer climates, such as the Philippines & India. Our normal supply of hats come from various parts of the country, but the lockdown has caused a problem with supply. Can you help, are you a knitter? Please contact me if you are able to help.

Diocesan Youth Services

You can view our creation service on the Diocese YouTube page. <https://youtu.be/bNVJYg4IQYM> It's beautiful to hear what young very members love about our world and our young adults reflecting on our duty as Stewards of the earth. If you know a young person that would like to take part in the next online service in December please contact youth@prcdtr.org.uk Thank you

Would you fancy taking part in an online drama group to produce an alternative nativity play? This is aimed at young people aged 11 – 21. Zoom sessions will run 9th, 16th, 23rd and 30th November from 7.30-8.45. Please email youth@prcdtr.org.uk if you would like to join.

Bless youth ministry in our diocese

From Father Brian

Next Sunday being the 1st November we celebrate the Feast of All Saints followed the next day with the Feast of All Souls. November is the month we remember our departed loved ones. In our parish we have a 'Book of Remembrance' and we are invited to write the names of those who have died and we wish to remember in the celebration of the Mass. Because of the present restrictions it will not be possible to leave this book at the back of the church and to bring the book up to the altar during the Mass. Therefore, I invite you to forward the names of those you wish to remember and they will be recorded, and the book will be placed in front of the altar at each Mass. You can bring the names to church, by email and through the letter box of the presbytery. Please print the names. In this way we will continue to remember the faithful departed during November at the celebration of the Mass.

Have a good and safe week.

Father Brian

Points to Ponder

Some people care too much, I think it's called Love.

(Winnie the Pooh)

Kindness is caring for others, even when they may not care for you.

When someone truly cares about you they make an effort, not an excuse.

Please Pray for Celia Kirkland who died this week, may the Lord grant her eternal rest

We Welcome into the Church Alan Shailes, baptised and confirmed this weekend in Falmouth.

Prayer Requests

Please pray for those in the Parish who are sick or housebound or in need of our prayers.
