HELSTON & MULLION NEWS

People will be sad to hear of the death of Catherine Taylor, Vera Wilmott's daughter. Please pray for Catherine and also for all Vera and Brian's family.

You will notice from the schedule on the front cover that the church will be open twice a week. You are welcome to come in and pray at that time. The Bishop has also asked that we have a time of prayer at home at 6 o'clock every day, to show our solidarity as a Diocese. There is also to be a nationwide vigil on the eve of Christ the King. Obviously this cannot be an organised service, but I am thinking of having our church open from 4 – 5 on that Saturday afternoon. If allowed, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed, but it will not be possible to give Benediction. Please read the communications about this from the Diocese.

Afraid you won't be in church to notice that the church windows (and hall and presbytery windows) have all been cleaned after goodness knows how long? Ian gave us a very special deal in return for advertising his services. Do call him on 07734 232924 – I can thoroughly recommend him.

FALMOUTH & MAWNAN SMITH NEWS

First Holy Communion 2020

Once again, Father Brian apologizes that the children were unable to make their First Holy Communion. After consulting with the catechists, once the hall is open, hopefully by Christmas, we will complete their preparation through a short number of meetings in the hall. This will enable us to comply with social distancing, hopefully these children will make their First Holy Communion early in 2021.

Hopefully the children preparing for First Holy Communion in 2021 will begin their preparation at the normal venue of the school and make their First Holy Communion towards the end of May or early June.

First Holy Communion 2021

If you have a child who will be 8 years old by summer 2021, school year 3 or above, and you would like them to make their First Holy Communion next year please give their details to Fr Brian or through St Mary's School. We expect to have resolved the difficulties surrounding preparation by January when classes usually begin.

Reaching Out

For those who are able to access bulletins etc. through the internet or email and are taking them to others, we are planning to send them through the normal post. If you know of anyone in this category please let us know. Obviously, we would encourage you to continue visiting and keeping in contact.

Interfaith Week

Hans Kung, a Catholic theologian. Wrote "There will be no peace among nations if there is not peace among the great faiths."

In his latest encyclical letter; Pope Francis sends out a clarion call to discover new ways of engaging in politics, society, and religion, that are grounded in a culture of encounter and friendship rather than self-interest. In Fratelli Tutti 281, he writes; "A journey of peace is possible between religions. It's point of departure must be God's way of seeing things. God does not see with his eyes; God sees with his heart. And God's love is the same for everyone, regardless of religion. When the last days comes, and there is sufficient light to see things as they really are, we are going to see ourselves" Let us reflect upon and pray for positive interfaith dialogue and understanding of the need for people of all faiths to work together for the good of all peoples. From Father Brian

This Sunday we mark 'Remembrance Sunday'. We remember all those who have lost their lives in the various wars and conflicts. We are aware and grateful to all those who gave their lives so that we could live our lives in peace and freedom. We also remember all the innocent victims of war. At the 10.30 am Mass there will be a period of silence followed by a prayer.

Have a good and safe week.

Father Brian

Points to Ponder

If we don't end war, war will end us.

(H.G. Wells)

Peace cannot be kept by force; it can only be achieved by understanding.

(Albert Einstein)

Peace is the virtue of civilization. War is its crime.

(Victor Hugo)
