Helston & Mullion News

There are various Lenten materials available in the porch at each church, please see if anything will be helpful to you during this holy season.

Could we please make sure there are names on the list in the porch to steward ALL our masses. If there aren't then the church should remain locked!

HELSTON CHURCHES TOGETHER LENT COURSE. THIS WEEK : SESSION 2: Global Warming and Climate Change. Some facts and figures about climate change, and why faith in a Creator God should give us hope.

Time: 19:00 Every week on Tuesdays Mar 2, Mar 9, Mar 16, Mar 23,

Use this link to join Zoom Meeting <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/89675988356>

OR BY PHONE: (Meeting ID: 896 7598 8356) DIAL: 0203 901 7895; 0131 460 1196; 0203 051 2874; 0203 481 5237; 044 203 481 5240. One tap mobile: +442039017895,,89675988356# OR +441314601196,,89675988356#

I was disappointed that none of our people joined us last Tuesday. I do hope some will try and join us this week. The sessions are very interesting – and you don't have to go out on a cold, wet and windy March night, but can sit in your favourite comfy chair with your preferred brew beside you; and not have to drive home afterwards, either! The sessions finish by 8.15.

As you can see, the theme this year is caring for God's creation. On this point I am very aware of just how much paper we have been using during the past few months. I have checked up, and it seems that paper material can be used again as long as it is quarantined for 48 hours before and after use. This means that the Sunday and Weekday mass sheets with the "proprs" on (the bits we say every week) can be re-used. Please leave them in the wire tray by the door, NOT in the re-cycling box. Thank you.

YouTube

We have just set up a YouTube channel for the parish. Please go to St Mary Immaculate Falmouth. You will see a picture of the church tower. Both Fr Brian's talks (and other things) are now available on YouTube - <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCoz2cJRb4BlwdJqtrBv8F6w>

FAIRTRADE FORTNIGHT
22 FEBRUARY – 7 MARCH

Saturday 6th March Falmouth Market on the Moor 9.am – 4.pm

Last chance this fortnight, to buy Fairtrade products and support the work of Fairtrade. Fairtrade's mission is to connect disadvantaged farmers and workers with consumers, promote fairer trading conditions and empower farmers and workers to combat poverty and take more control over their lives.

Just recently, a tariff free trade agreement between Ghana and the UK was approved following a Fairtrade campaign to remove tariffs that left banana farmers exporting their goods at a loss. We have the power as consumers and supporters, to bring about amazing change.

Two Free online Arts festivals celebrating Fairtrade Fortnight. One week left. It is not too late to sign up for the last week of available events.

World Day of Prayer 2021 (Formerly Women's World day of Prayer)-Friday 5th March 2021 10.30am

BUILD ON A STRONG FOUNDATION

The service this year will be LIVE STREAMED, from Emmanuel Baptist Church, Falmouth. To take part, follow the link; <https://www.ctcinfohub.org/wdp21> This beautiful service has been created by the women of Vanuatu. Everyone welcome (Men women and children). Booklets of the service are available at St Mary's, please take one and join in the service from the comfort of your own home and if you are unable to LIVE STREAM, you can still join in the prayer from 10.30am on the 5th March, using your booklet.

Stations of the Cross

Each Friday of Lent Father Brian will lead the Stations of the Cross at 6.30 pm. Because of the current restrictions the Stations will be live-streamed using the 'Live Mass' link on the parish website. Father Brian will use the Saint Alphonsus Stations of the Cross every week during Lent. Copies of the booklet of these stations are available in the churches at Falmouth and Mawnan Smith for you to take and keep. Please take a copy when you come to Mass. Copies are also available at Helston, please see Fr Paul.

Stella Maris (Apostleship of the Sea)

Normally at this time of the year we put in an appeal for Easter Eggs for seafarers.

However, in these strange times we are unable to meet our seafaring friends.

We have a lovely supply of chocolate from our Christmas appeal, which will be delivered as soon as we are able, but not until much later in the year.

Thank you for all your support throughout the year, but no Easter Eggs this year.

From Father Brian

In this weekend's Gospel we have Mark's account of the transfiguration of Jesus. On a high mountain we glimpse the future of the Lord's divine glory and His triumph over sin and death which will be achieved through His cross and resurrection. The transfiguration of Our Lord encourages us in times of difficulty and suffering to remain faithful to our faith and to the Gospel knowing that our Christian destiny is to share in the resurrection of Jesus.

This weekend and until Friday all the money collected will go to CAFOD and our contributions will help people less well off than us have their lives transfigured and transformed. I know you will be as generous as you can.

Have a god and safe week.

Father Brian

Points to Ponder

Transformation is often more about unlearning than learning.

(Richard Rohr)

Leadership is about vision and responsibility, not power.

(Seth Berkley)

Never cease chiselling your own statue.

(Plotinus 205-270 AD)

St Joseph

On 8th December 2020 Pope Francis declared the beginning of a Year of St Joseph. The Bishop has asked all the parishes to seek the intercession of St Joseph throughout the year.

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen
