Helston & Mullion News

PLEASE NOTE the schedule of masses is DIFFERENT THIS WEEK. The public mass at Mullion is on Wednesday instead of Tuesday, so that we can celebrate St Patrick's Day with a congregation; and the public mass at Helston is on Friday instead of Thursday, so that we can keep the Solemnity of St Joseph publicly in this year of St Joseph. I shall take Thursday as my day off this week.

NEXT WEEK will be a little different too as Mullion's mass will be on Thursday at 10.00 instead of Tuesday, Helston as usual at 12.00 on Thursday, this is so that both churches can celebrate the great Solemnity of the Annunciation with a public mass.

REMEMBER Sunday service times will change in both churches on PALM SUNDAY. Mass at Helston will move from 10.00 to 09.30 and mass in Mullion from Saturday evening to 11.30 on Sunday morning.

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED! We need someone to take on responsibility for our hall bookings as we anticipate the hall will open again sometime in May. If you think you might be able to help us with this please let me know a.s.a.p. As you saw last week, the hall brings in over £5000 every year – but it won't if we have to shut it down because there is no one to look after the administration.

HELSTON CHURCHES TOGETHER LENT COURSE. Time: 19:00 on Tuesdays, Mar 16 & Mar 23.

THIS WEEK : SESSION 4: Coming out of Denial and Facing Crisis – what difference should our faith make?

MARY MYLES WRITES: LOTTIE ELLIS has passed on several of Isabel's rosaries and holy pictures. I then spoke to the Prison Outreach team who said they would be very happy to receive rosaries etc. to pass on to prisoners who are very appreciative. Unfortunately, they cannot take books. I will leave a labelled box in the porch if anyone is able to help. Thank you.

In the porch at Helston there are a number of books laid out on the table in front of the window which have been given to the church. If there is anything there you fancy PLEASE HELP YOURSELF. There is no charge. It seems a shame to throw books away if someone might like them, but that is what we shall have to do if they are still there in a few week's time.

Feast of St Patrick

This Wednesday is the Feast of St Patrick, Bishop and Patron of Ireland. Mass for the Feast will be celebrated at 10.00 am. Therefore, NO Mass in the evening.

St Patrick was born in Wales in 387 A.D. St Patrick, a most beloved Patron Saint and bishop of Ireland, is credited with bringing Christianity to Ireland in the early 5th century. One of the traditional symbols of St Patrick's Day is the shamrock. Many claim the three-leaved plant with one stalk, represents faith, hope, and love, but many more believe St Patrick used the shamrock to teach the mystery of the Holy Trinity, illustrating how the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit could all exist as separate elements of the same unity.

First Holy Communion 2020/21

As you may know the schools have returned and each year group act as a 'social bubble'. In other words year groups do not mix. This causes us a problem for our potential First Holy Communion meetings as some candidates will come from different social bubbles and even different schools. Therefore, after discussions with catechists and teachers we do not think it would be possible, while keeping to the restrictions, to hold the meetings for First Holy Communion at this stage. However, we will review the situation on a monthly basis. Hopefully the gradual easing of the restrictions will allow us to begin the preparation meetings in the Parish Hall in the near future. I know this will be a great disappointment to many, as it is for me and all concerned with Holy Communion preparation. However, I am hopeful the First Holy Communion celebration will take place sometime this year. I appreciate your patience and understanding.

Feast of St Joseph

This Friday we celebrate the Solemnity of St Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Patron of the Universal Church. Mass will be celebrated at 10.00 am. Father Brian will give a live-stream presentation on St Joseph on Tuesday 16th March at 6.30 pm. On Thursday 18th March at 11.15 am Father Brian will also give a short live-stream presentation to St Mary's School on St Joseph. These presentations are open to all and will also be recorded and uploaded to our YouTube channel.

For your information

On Good Friday there will be Stations of the Cross at 10.00 am at Mawnan Smith as well as the Lord's Passion at 3.00 pm at Falmouth. This is in recognition that our capacity will be very limited for the Solemn Liturgy at 3.00 pm.

Full details of all Holy Week ceremonies will be published in the bulletin over the next couple of weeks.

Thanks to You

Fairtrade Stall Falmouth Market 27th February and 6th March

A very big thank you to all the Fairtrade supporters who visited our stall both Saturdays, during Fairtrade Fortnight. Sales plus a few small donations, for both Saturdays came to total of £383.47. We also received two separate donations which amounted to £25. Every Fairtrade purchase generates a premium payment which goes direct to farmers and producers to invest in their businesses and the communities around them. Your support is changing lives. On behalf of Fairtrade farmers, we thank you for your generosity and support.

Tess Cummins family would like to thank everyone for their cards and good wishes on the sad occasion of the loss of Tess.

From Father Brian

This weekend we celebrate 'Mothering Sunday' and I would like to wish all mothers in our parish a very happy and blessed day. I am sure that for many this celebration will be restricted because of the coronavirus. However, I do hope that mothers everywhere will feel loved and cherished on their special day. For those of us whose mothers have died we commend them to the love and mercy of almighty God, confident that through Jesus they have been given the gift of eternal life. This weekend we also celebrate 'Laetare Sunday'. Laetare means rejoice and in the 4th Sunday of Lent the Church expresses hope and joy in the midst of our Lenten fasts and penances. Laetare gives us a glimpse of the joy that awaits us at Easter.

Have a good and safe week.

Father Brian

Points to Ponder

Mothers don't sleep, they just worry with their eyes closed.

A mother's hug lasts long after she lets go.

Life is a series of moments called Now

St Joseph

On 8th December 2020 Pope Francis declared the beginning of a Year of St Joseph. The Bishop has asked all the parishes to seek the intercession of St Joseph throughout the year.

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen
