Helston & Mullion News

THANKS to all in both our churches who helped the services of Holy Week and Easter progress so well under the current restrictions. Special thanks to readers, church cleaners, the serving team, the flower ladies, children's liturgy leaders and any others I've forgotten!

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED! We need someone to take on responsibility for our hall bookings as we anticipate the hall will open again sometime in May. If you think you might be able to help us with this please let me know a.s.a.p. The hall brings in over £5000 every year – but it won't continue to do this if we have to shut it down because there is no one to look after the administration.

There is a box in the porch at Helston for any prayers cards and small objects of devotion Mary Myles is collecting to send to prisoners. Please contribute what you can, it will be going soon.

Also in the porch at Helston there are a number of books laid out on the table in front of the window which have been given to the church. If there is anything there you fancy PLEASE HELP YOURSELF. There is no charge. It seems a shame to throw books away if someone might like them, but that is what we shall have to do if they are still there in a few weeks time.

The "churchcam" at the back of St Mary's is now live on an experimental basis. To tune in please copy or paste this link to your browser:

I am reliably informed the sound is better than on Facebook. When I know those presently tuning in to the live streams on Facebook have managed to work out how to access this camera I shall cease the daily Facebook live streams, hopefully by the end of this month.

ADVANCE NOTICE: Fr Paul will take his Easter break from after mass at Mullion on 25th April. Please refer any pastoral matters that week to Fr Brian at Falmouth, or use the mobile no. in an emergency.

First Holy Communion 2020/21

As you may know the schools have returned and each year group act as a 'social bubble'. In other words year groups do not mix. This causes us a problem for our potential First Holy Communion meetings as some candidates will come from different social bubbles and even different schools. Therefore, after discussions with catechists and teachers we do not think it would be possible, while keeping to the restrictions, to hold the meetings for First Holy Communion at this stage. However, we will review the situation on a monthly basis. Hopefully the gradual easing of the restrictions will allow us to begin the preparation meetings in the Parish Hall in the near future. I know this will be a great disappointment to many, as it is for me and all concerned with Holy Communion preparation. However, I am hopeful the First Holy Communion celebration will take place sometime this year. I appreciate your patience and understanding.

St Joseph

On 8th December 2020 Pope Francis declared the beginning of a Year of St Joseph. The Bishop has asked all the parishes to seek the intercession of St Joseph throughout the year.

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen

From Father Brian

This weekend we complete the Octave of Easter. The Octave begins at the Easter Vigil and completes at the Second Sunday of Easter. Of course, the season of Easter continues until the vigil of Pentecost on 22nd May.

My sincere thanks for all those who contributed to our Triduum and Easter Sunday celebrations. Despite the restrictions placed upon us they were moving and sacred occasions. At Falmouth and Mawnan Smith the total attendance for these celebrations was 294. I am so happy that despite our limited capacities so many were able to share in the joy of our celebrations for the Triduum and Easter Sunday.

Also a huge thank you for the Easter cards, the chocolate, the offerings and other gifts. I am truly grateful for your kindness.

Better days are coming and we remain careful and alert being aware that the virus remains with us. I am conscious of members of our community who are still advised to self-isolate and cannot come to church. They are very much in my thoughts and prayers.

With my prayers and blessing

Father Brian
