Helston & Mullion News

A VERY WARM WELCOME to those visiting us for Mass at either of our churches today, and to all those returning after a while away. The church hall at Helston re-opens TODAY so there will be coffee after mass; we hope our visitors will stay and enjoy a little hospitality.

FOOD BANK COLLECTION at Mullion this morning. Collection for the Helston Food Bank is EVERY week.

It is really good to see so many people returning to Sunday worship. Under the new Stage 4 Restrictions, in our churches the hand sanitiser must be used by all at entry and exit; face coverings must continue to be worn at least on entry and exit and when singing and, in the designated area, AT ALL TIMES. Those who wish to keep a social distance should pick up one or two “space please” signs as they come in. The windows and doors will all remain open to increase ventilation. Please read the full information on the little red sheet. The Monday mass will continue to be said privately, so that we shall not need to clean the church except after special services, closer than 48 hours together. The hymn books and our usual mass cards can now be used once again.

Statement from Churches Together: At a recent meeting we decided to disband the formal ‘Churches Together in Mullion, Cury and Gunwalloe’ group. The old constitution and style of doing things were no longer helpful to our ecumenical ways of working together. Instead we are going to re-launch a more informal network or group of ‘Christians Together on the Lizard Peninsula’ which offers us more flexibility and freedom. So be assured that ecumenical work will continue in our community and people can volunteer or opt in to help with specific projects rather than have to commit to being a Rep on a committee. The meetings will be open meetings to anyone who is interested in finding out more about ways of working together and sharing in joint projects. The first meeting of ‘Christians Together on the Lizard Peninsula’ (CTLP) will be on Monday 1st November at 4pm at the Catholic Church in Mullion.

Morning Prayer is recited publicly on Tuesdays and Thursdays at Helston 20 minutes before mass. All are welcome.

At public masses we are reciting the “Prayer for Spiritual Communion” by St Alphonsus Ligouri not only for the benefit of those who are watching online and for members of our own congregation present but unable to receive Holy Communion at this time for any reason; but also to remind those of us who are able to be at worship in church that we are all a part of a much larger worshipping community.

Lord’s Pantry

As we start to get back to normal please could we ask for your generosity in donations to the Lord’s Pantry basket. Donations are distributed between Simon House, St Petroc’s, the FoodBank and the ‘men of the road’. As well as non-perishable foodstuffs we can give household cleaning items and personal items such as shampoo and shower gel.

We would love to reinvigorate our parish CAFOD group. Please pray to see if you are moved to help the parish “hear the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor” and to reach out to our sisters and brothers around the world through CAFOD. Do please speak to Hilary in the parish office and/or contact Simon Giarchi, our diocesan CAFOD coordinator on: 07920751180 or plymouth@cafod.org.uk

Once we have the names of those interested Simon will organise a meeting to get everyone together either in person or online.

Saturday Readers

If you attend Mass on Saturday evenings please consider volunteering to read, we need to add to our pool of readers for this Mass.

Please Note - Car Parking

On a Sunday the bottom car park will be closed at 2 pm and the top car park will be closed at 6 pm.

Coffee Club

Please could anyone able to volunteer to be on the rota for coffee club after Sunday 10.30 Mass let Pat Miller know on 313752.

16th October Youth Workers Conference

Venue: St Rita's, Honiton 10.00 – 2.30 People are welcome to make a voluntary contribution on the day.

I am inviting everyone across the diocese who either works with young people or would like to work with young people (this includes catechists) to join me at Honiton. Rise Theatre will be joining us to celebrate all the youth work and events (and what used to happen before COVID) across the diocese. I hope it is an opportunity for us to reflect on what is happening in our parishes and across the diocese, offering each other support and a chance to share our talents. My aim is to build a forum where we can continue to share ideas and experiences along with a chance to call upon each other for help when needed. Rise Theatre will offer a workshop for everyone, offering suggestions of activities that can be used in the parish either as part of the catechesis programme or informal events. Lunch will be provided. For further information or to simply join the forum, please email Saskia Hogbin:

Spiritual Communion Prayer of St Alphonsus

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in this Holy Sacrament of the altar. I love you above all things and I passionately desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my soul so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever.

Amen

From Father Brian

From the 1st August until the 13th August I will be away from the parish on my annual summer holiday. I am very grateful to Canon David Annear for supplying for me in my absence. The parish office will be open as usual to respond to any concerns or problems etc.

Take care and you remain in my thoughts and prayers.

Have a good and safe week.

Points to Ponder

Sharing the Gospel is not a burden but a joy.

(Anon)

Failure to speak out against and oppose evil is a failure to obey God.

If the Lord sees greatness in you, how then should you see yourself?
