Helston & Mullion News

A VERY WARM WELCOME to those visiting us for Mass at either of our churches today, and to all those returning after a while away. There is coffee after mass in the church hall and we hope our visitors will stay and enjoy a little hospitality.

November is the month of the Holy Souls. Slips are available at the back of both churches on which to put the names of loved ones you would like remembered during this month; but please, as usual, use the green envelopes if you would like a mass said for anyone in particular.

Deo gratias – the church heating at Helston is scheduled to be repaired on Thursday!!!

People are still using the “wrong” email address for parish business. Please DO NOT USE GMAIL, the correct address is as on the front of this bulletin.

A reminder that on Mondays Fr Paul is the “on call” Catholic Chaplain for Treliske hospital so if you can’t reach him at the Presbytery please try the mobile number (as on the front of this bulletin).

A number of people have expressed an interest in becoming Catholics and joining the Church, in fact six people are undergoing preparation at the moment. If you are interested in joining them please let Fr Paul know a.s.a.p. Similarly, if you believe there is a barrier to you receiving Holy Communion at this time please talk to Fr Paul, as it may be possible to do something about it.

Do remember to look at look at the News for all 4 churches section of this bulletin as well!

DATES FOR YOUR DIARIES:

- On Friday, 12th Nov. there will be coffee & cake at The Chocolate Factory after the 10 o’clock Mullion mass– Everyone welcome from all our churches This is going to co-incide with the reception after Janet Holmes’ funeral, but that shouldn’t be a problem, I hope.
- On Saturday, 13th Nov. 10 - 3 Fairtrade Craft Fair at Helston Methodist Church.
- On Sunday 14th Nov. at 2 pm the baptism in Helston of Arthur James, Terry Cook’s grandson.
- Tuesday 23rd – no mass in Helston, see next.
- Wednesday, 24th Nov, is RED WEDNESDAY. No morning mass (Priest’s Council at Honiton) but: Ecumenical service at St Mary’s at 18.30.

World Day of the Poor 2021

Sunday 14 November 2021 is the fifth World Day of the Poor, initiated by Pope Francis in 2017. The theme for this year's World Day of the Poor is "for the poor you have always with you" from the words of Jesus at the Anointing in Bethany just before his Passion. We are called to follow the example of Jesus in loving God and neighbour, especially the most vulnerable. Pope Francis reminds us, "If we truly wish to encounter Christ, we have to touch his body in the suffering bodies of the poor."

There are more resource including a link to the Pope's message and a reflection from Bishop Mark on our website <https://www.plymouth-diocese.org.uk/worlddayreport/>. There is also a lovely Novena created by Caritas Social Action Network <https://www.csan.org.uk/worlddayofthepoor/> which will be shared each day from 5 November on our Diocesan Facebook page.

Fr Robbie Low presented to our diocese with some excellent tips on how we can evangelise. If you missed it live, the recording is now available.

CATHOLIC VOICES – SHARING THE FAITH WITH CHARITY AND CLARITY

Saturday November 13th. 11.30am – 1pm. (via Zoom) Vicariate of Evangelisation and Catechesis.

Do you worry about sharing your Faith in case you meet hostility? Or you might get asked a difficult question? Perhaps the most challenging people are those in your own family and it grieves you that their ears and hearts seem closed. Perhaps you studiously avoid Faith conversations, just in case.....? Catholic Voices have worldwide experience in helping Catholics to dismantle hostility and share the Faith clearly and always from a loving standpoint.

Please register for this FREE event using the following link and you will receive an invitation to join on Zoom <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/catholic-voices-sharing-the-faith-with-charity-and-clarity-tickets-195088945287>

Walking Together

Everyone is invited to a Diocese of Plymouth online event on Tuesday 16th November at 7pm where Austen Ivereigh will explore the topic:

"Behind the global synod: why Pope Francis wants you to speak boldly and listen carefully."

Austen Ivereigh is a writer, journalist and commentator best known for his books on and with Pope Francis, and for his role in the media explaining the convictions of the Catholic Church. He is a fellow in Contemporary Church History at Campion Hall, Oxford and a regular contributor to The Tablet. Please register if you would like to join us for what will be a really interesting discussion, with an opportunity for Questions and Answers.

From Father Brian

The example of the selfless generosity of the two women in this Sunday's readings is but a sign of God's reckless generosity in giving us Himself in His only Son Jesus Christ. We too, as Christians are called to give all that we can and have faith and trust that God will look after us and lead us to our eternal home of heaven.

Have a good and safe week

Points to Ponder

The meaning of life is to find your gift. The purpose of life is to give it away.

(Pablo Picasso)

Real generosity is doing something nice for someone who will never find out .

(Frank A. Clark)

You do not have to be rich to be generous.

(anon)

Prayer for Synod: We stand before you Holy Spirit.

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son forever and ever. Amen.
