Helston & Mullion News

A VERY WARM WELCOME to all who are worshipping with us today. There is coffee or tea after mass in the church hall at Helston.

November is the month of the Holy Souls. Slips are available at the back of both churches on which to put the names of loved ones you would like remembered during this month; but please, as usual, use the green envelopes (with the usual donation) if you would like a mass said for anyone in particular.

Deo gratias – the church heating at Helston should have been repaired last Thursday!!!

People are still using the “wrong” email address for parish business. Please DO NOT USE GMAIL, the correct address is paul.andrew@prcdtr.org.uk.

Falmouth & Mawnan Smith News

RCIA meeting

For those who are interested in becoming Catholics continue on Friday 19th November at 2.00 pm in St Mary’s Presbytery, Killigrew Street

First Holy Communion 2022

There will be a meeting for parents only on Tuesday 16th November at 6 pm in the Church Hall at St Mary’s. Catholic baptised children in school years 3 & 4 or older will be invited to celebrate their First Holy Communion in May 2022 after completing the preparation that will begin in January.

Cemetery Sunday

For St Mary’s Falmouth will be celebrated on Sunday 28th November at 3.00 pm at Falmouth Cemetery. This day gives us the opportunity to pray for the faithful departed and visit the graves of loved ones, friends and parishioners. There will be a short liturgy and Father Brian will bless the catholic graves. Because of the COVID restrictions we have contacted Falmouth Town Council and they are happy for our service to go ahead but have asked us to observe social distancing.

CAFOD

An Invitation to Our Upcoming Parish CAFOD Group Meeting, Thursday 25th November 6.30-8pm

We hope to restart our Parish CAFOD Group, everyone who is interested in finding out more are welcome to come to our Parish CAFOD Group Meeting.

As Pope Francis says, we are called to create a new world of love, and to work for “a world without hunger, poverty, violence and war”. There is much to do in the world to build up God’s Kingdom of love and justice here on Earth and our CAFOD Group will brilliantly support our parish to continue to quite literally make the world of a difference through CAFOD. It is our very special charity and the official Catholic agency through which we enable the Church’s “common projects” of international development and humanitarian work. “May our hearts be open” in this parish to “all the peoples and nations of the earth”.

For more information get in touch with Hilary or call CAFOD’s diocesan coordinator, Simon Giarchi, on Tel: 07920 751 180 or Email: plymouth@cafod.org.uk

CHRISTMAS CHOCOLATE for SEAFARERS

It’s that time of the year when we start to collect chocolate bars for seafarers who visit our ports.

A box will be placed in the usual position as you come into the church and your contributions will be gratefully received.

Christmas Falmouth/Mawnan Smith

Message from Father Brian. After much thought and prayer I have decided that the Masses will be as follows: Friday December 24th Falmouth 6.00 pm Vigil Mass; 10.00 pm with carols from 9.30 pm.

Saturday Christmas Day Mawnan Smith 9.00 am, Falmouth 10.30 am. Please note no 6.00 pm Mass.

Sunday 26th December 9.00 am Mass Mawnan Smith, Falmouth 10.30 am. I am aware that some will be disappointed that there will be no traditional Midnight Mass but with the continuing restrictions and uncertainties due to COVID I sincerely believe this is the best solution. I appreciate your understanding.

Congratulations

To Helen Shanahan on being awarded the British Empire Medal for her services to Midwifery and Breast-feeding. Well done and thank you Helen

FairTrade & Christmas Cards

Will be available on Sunday 14th November in the hall after 10.30 Mass.

AID TO THE CHURCH IN NEED

RED WEDNESDAY-FOR THE SUFFERING AND PERSECUTED CHURCH

News for All 4 Churches

Mass for the Sick

Will take place at St Mary's Falmouth on Saturday 27th November at 11.00 am. Assistance with transport can be arranged, please contact Fr Brian or Fr Paul.

World Day of the Poor 2021

Sunday 14 November 2021 is the fifth World Day of the Poor, initiated by Pope Francis in 2017. The theme for this year's World Day of the Poor is "for the poor you have always with you" from the words of Jesus at the Anointing in Bethany just before his Passion. We are called to follow the example of Jesus in loving God and neighbour, especially the most vulnerable. Pope Francis reminds us, "If we truly wish to encounter Christ, we have to touch his body in the suffering bodies of the poor."

There are more resource including a link to the Pope's message and a reflection from Bishop Mark on our website <https://www.plymouth-diocese.org.uk/worlddayreport/>. There is also a lovely Novena created by Caritas Social Action Network <https://www.csan.org.uk/worlddayofthepoor/> which will be shared each day from 5 November on our Diocesan Facebook page.

FIVE BIBLE STUDIES ON THE ADVENT SUNDAY GOSPELS

Mauro Iannicelli will break-open the forthcoming Advent Sunday Gospels with in-depth teaching and stimulating questions. As a result, you will experience Sunday Mass in a new way!

Five Wednesdays: 24 Nov | 1 Dec | 8 Dec | 15 Dec | 22 Dec (7-8pm UK Time). Free of Charge | LIVE sessions on YouTube.

Info & Registration: <https://comeandsee.org/advent>

Prayer from Pope Francis' encyclical Fratelli Tutti

Lord, Father of our human family, you created all human beings equal in dignity: pour forth into our hearts a fraternal spirit and inspire in us a dream of renewed encounter, dialogue, justice and peace. Move us to create healthier societies and a more dignified world, a world without hunger, poverty, violence and war. May our hearts be open to all the peoples and nations of the earth. May we recognize the goodness and beauty that you have sown in each of us, and thus forge bonds of unity, common projects, and shared dreams. Amen.

Father Jacek Kostuch

We look forward to welcoming Fr Jacek who will be moving into the presbytery as a priest in residence at Falmouth early in December. He is recovering from ill health and this is the next stage of his rehabilitation before returning to full time ministry.

From Father Brian

This weekend we celebrate Remembrance Sunday, a sacred and important occasion for so many of us. This weekend gives us the opportunity to remember and to pray for all those who died in the various wars, conflicts and acts of violence. We also remember their families and those who suffered injuries both physical and mental. At the very beginning of the 10.30 am Mass at Falmouth there will be a period of silence to remember and to honour the fallen. May they rest in eternal peace. Have a good and safe week

Points to Ponder

The living owe it to those who no longer speak to tell their story for them.

(Czeslaw Milosz)

Though they sink through the sea they shall rise again; though lovers be lost love shall not; and death shall have no dominion .

(Dylan Thomas)

Death leaves a heartache no one can heal. Love leaves a memory no one can steal.

(words found on an Irish headstone)
