Helston & Mullion News

A VERY WARM WELCOME to all who are worshipping with us today. There is coffee or tea after mass in the church hall at Helston.

AFTER MASS TODAY AT HELSTON – a cake stall to Support Aid to the Church in Need

This Wednesday is RED WEDNESDAY. There is no morning mass (Priest's Council at Honiton) but the usual Ecumenical service at St Mary's at 18.30. Volunteers needed to provide small plates of nibbles. The church heating at Helston should also be repaired on Wednesday, in time for the service.

Fr Paul writes: My very grateful thanks for the most generous gifts from the congregations of both our churches on my recent birthday. The low-key celebrations were exactly what I wanted.

Notes from the 2 recent church meetings are available at the back of church (H) / in the porch (M).

Anne Randall writes: Missio Red Boxes - Would Missio box holders bring in their boxes for counting in the next two weeks, unless it has been recently counted. Mullion holders, please give to Father Paul. Many thanks to all, especially in this Covid year. Christmas cards are on sale at the back of church in Helston, near the Confessional.

A reminder that on Mondays Fr Paul is the "on call" Catholic Chaplain for Trelliske hospital so if you can't reach him at the Presbytery please try the mobile number (as on the front of this bulletin).

DATES FOR YOUR DIARIES:

- Saturday, 27th Nov. at 11: MASS FOR THE SICK *at Falmouth FOR ALL FOUR CHURCHES. Assistance with transport can be arranged, please ask.
- Friday, 7th January 2022 after mass: next coffee morning at The Chocolate Factory in Mullion

Falmouth & Mawnan Smith News

RCIA meeting

For those who are interested in becoming Catholics continue on Friday 26th November at 2.00 pm in St Mary's Presbytery, Killigrew Street

First Holy Communion 2022

For your information instructions for the children will commence on Tuesday 11th January 2022 at the school and celebration of First Holy Communion will be on Sunday 15th May 2022.

CHRISTMAS CHOCOLATE for SEAFARERS

It's that time of the year when we start to collect chocolate bars for seafarers who visit our ports. A box will be placed in the usual position as you come into the church and your contributions will be gratefully received.

Cemetery Sunday

For St Mary's Falmouth will be celebrated on Sunday 28th November at 3.00 pm at Falmouth Cemetery. This day gives us the opportunity to pray for the faithful departed and visit the graves of loved ones, friends and parishioners. There will be a short liturgy and Father Brian will bless the catholic graves. Because of the COVID restrictions we have contacted Falmouth Town Council and they are happy for our service to go ahead but have asked us to observe social distancing.

CAFOD

An Invitation to Our Upcoming Parish CAFOD Group Meeting, Thursday 25th November 6.30-8pm

We hope to restart our Parish CAFOD Group, everyone who is interested in finding out more are welcome to come to our Parish CAFOD Group Meeting. As Pope Francis says, we are called to create a new world of love, and to work for "a world without hunger, poverty, violence and war". There is much to do in the world to build up God's Kingdom of love and justice here on Earth and our CAFOD Group will brilliantly support our parish to continue to quite literally make the world of a difference through CAFOD. It is our very special charity and the official Catholic agency through which we enable the Church's "common projects" of international development and humanitarian work. Through its ministry we live out the Gospel and actively love the poorest of our sisters and brothers around the world. "May our hearts be open" in this parish to "all the peoples and nations of the earth". For more information get in touch with Hilary or call CAFOD's diocesan coordinator, Simon Giarchi, on Tel: 07920 751 180 or Email: plymouth@cafod.org.uk

Walking Together –

The Listening and Discernment sessions at St Mary's Falmouth will begin on Wednesday 1st December at 7.00 pm and Friday 3rd December at 11.00 am in the church hall and will continue on Wednesdays and Fridays. Please note that during Advent Wednesday Mass will be celebrated at 6.00 pm. Hopefully having morning and evening sessions will give as many parishioners as possible the opportunity to contribute to this important time of listening and discernment for the whole Church

Margot Molyneux

Many of us have fond memories of Margot and so we are invited to attend Mass for her on Friday 26th November at 10 00 am followed by a small celebration in the hall, please bring a plate to share. Details see Mary May

100+ club

A huge thank you to all our members for making this year yet again a great success.

Christmas Falmouth/Mawnan Smith

Message from Father Brian. After much thought and prayer I have decided that the Masses will be as follows: Friday December 24th Falmouth 6.00 pm Vigil Mass; 10.00 pm with carols from 9.30 pm.

Saturday Christmas Day Mawnan Smith 9.00 am, Falmouth 10.30 am. Please note no 6.00 pm Mass.

Sunday 26th December 9.00 am Mass Mawnan Smith, Falmouth 10.30 am. I am aware that some will be disappointed that there will be no traditional Midnight Mass but with the continuing restrictions and uncertainties due to COVID I sincerely believe this is the best solution. I appreciate your understanding.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

At the moment 21 parishioners who are sick and housebound receive Holy Communion on a regular basis. Therefore, I am asking if some of our ministers of communion would consider assisting me in this important ministry. At present it is only me who takes the Blessed Sacrament and because of the many demands placed on me I am concerned that the sick or housebound will not receive Holy Communion as frequently as they should. Please pray about this and contact me if as a minister you are able to help. Thank you. Father Brian

RED WEDNESDAY-FOR THE SUFFERING AND PERSECUTED CHURCH

November 24th 1pm
Red Wednesday, is the day when we pray for freedom and tolerance for all religions and especially for persecuted Christians.

Our Justice and Peace group are holding a short service at 1pm in the Church Hall Falmouth, followed by refreshments and fellowship. Please join us, (and bring a little food to share afterwards)
Enquiries Mary Bradley 01326 312 768

News for Students

We hope you will be able to join us next Monday 22nd for Food 4 Soul at the Multifaith Chaplaincy in Penryn from 12:00-2:00 pm. Fr Martin will be saying Mass and we will also be joined by Pat McGovern who is a University Chaplain for Truro Medical School. There will be minestrone soup, bread, cheese, quiche and something sweet.

On Wednesday 24th we have Sea at 3 from 3-5 pm. Join us on Gylly Beach for a cuppa and a chat. Homemade cakes provided! Just bring a cup. If the weather is bad we will meet at St Mary's parish hall for table tennis from 3:30- 5:00 pm.

For more information on these events please email Fran at f.freeman@fxplus.ac.uk or follow us on Instagram- @falcathsoc

Grateful thanks

To the anonymous person who gave a donation of £300 to the parish.

Susan's Chutney on Sale for Kanji!

Susan's homemade chutney will be on sale in the church hall after Mass on Sunday 28rd November and Sunday 5th December if still available. Ideal for Christmas presents!

All money from the sale will go to 'The Kanji Project' charity that is supported by St Mary's. If anyone would like to buy chutney, but cannot attend these dates, please telephone Susan on 01326 259869 and she will arrange delivery to you.

A message from Sr Rose and the Bethany House Community

With Christmas now approaching and bearing in mind the need to preserve our environment and everyone's increasing concerns about climate change, we, this year have decided that, in lieu of Christmas cards, we will arrange for Masses to be said each month for all your intentions. We will also make donations to charities. We really appreciate all your Christmas gifts and greetings and thank you for these and for your understanding; we assure you of your continued place in our affections and in our prayers.

News for All 4 Churches

Mass for the Sick

Will take place at St Mary's Falmouth on Saturday 27th November at 11.00 am. Assistance with transport can be arranged, please contact Fr Brian or Fr Paul.

From Father Brian

On this last Sunday of the liturgical year the Church celebrates the Feast of Christ the King. This Feast is quite a recent one in the history of the Church. It was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925. In the Feast of Christ the King we recognize and honour Christ as ruler of all and Jesus invites us into His Kingdom, a kingdom which will never pass away. This Feast proclaims that we as Christians are heirs to the throne of truth and life.

Have a good and safe week

Points to Ponder

His crucifixion is the key; His resurrection is the door...it is only by His death that we have the mandate to enter into the gates of heaven. His doors are open always. Christ is King!

(Israelmore Ayivor)

We are sons and daughters of a King who is not moved by the world. For our God is with us and goes before us. We do not fear because we are His!

(Anon)

The more you inspire, the more people will inspire you.

(Simon Sinek)

Please pray for Rosemary Moffat who died last week. May the Lord grant her eternal rest.
