Helston & Mullion News

A VERY WARM WELCOME

to all who are worshipping with us today.

There is coffee or tea after mass on Sunday in the church hall at Helston.

Father Paul is away all this week, but Fr Jacek will say mass on Thursday and Friday at the usual times and places. Please call the Parish Office at Falmouth not the Helston Presbytery this week, but Fr Paul will be available, in emergency, on his mobile. All numbers on the front of this bulletin.

NEXT SUNDAY Helston's Service for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is being held at St Mary's. The Bishop of Truro is the guest preacher. Please make every effort to attend this, and tell your friends in other churches about it too.

A calendar of the major Feasts & Solemnities in 2022 is available at the back of Church.

We are doing our annual collection of chocolate bars for seafarers, please put these in the usual box. Thank you for those received so far.

The Diocesan Year Book for 2022 is available to buy for £4; please ask Fr Paul for a copy.

Last week's collection count for 02/01/22 was Helston £339.90, Mullion 79.50, Envelopes £32.00 = Total £451.40. Thank you all.

By order, our Holy Water stoups are to remain dry; but there are now HOLY WATER DISPENSERS in the porches of both churches. Please bring a little bottle if you wish to take some home.

There are new display stands at the back of both churches. Please take copies of anything you haven't seen before and/or looks interesting. The letter from the Conference of Bishops of England & Wales about Sundays is there, as is our own Bishop's letter about the latest COVID restrictions for churches. New this week is the latest Caritas Newsletter for January.

We desperately need MORE VOLUNTEERS at Helston, especially cleaners – it's only an hour once every three months, so not a great commitment – and counters, also someone (or more) to do the silver and the brass. Please speak to Fr Paul if you can help.

Falmouth & Mawnan Smith News

First Holy Communion

Wednesday Evening Mass

Following on from our recent Synodal meetings it has been decided to keep Wednesday Mass at 6.00 pm as this seems to be more convenient for most people.

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY-ST MARY'S FALMOUTH

WEDNESDAY 19 JANUARY 1pm in the church hall. This will be a short half hour service at which we will be joined by our friends from other local churches.

The service will be followed by refreshments and fellowship

Please come and join us and bring some food to share

CAFOD CORNWALL DEANERY MEETING

SATURDAY 5TH FEBRUARY. ST MARY'S FALMOUTH, WITH SHARED LUNCH.

Details to follow

Liturgy of the Word for children (children's liturgy)

This is a very important ministry for our children and young people. It presents the liturgy in an age appropriate and accessible way for them so that they have a better understanding of the Word of God.

We need more adults to volunteer to help with this, full training, guidance and all materials will be given. If you think you might be able to help please give your details to the office. A DBS check will be required.

News for All 4 Churches

White Flower Appeal

The annual appeal on behalf of SPUC, the Society for the Protection of Unborn Children, will be held at all Masses next weekend – 22nd/23rd January. SPUC work to protect human life from conception to natural death. Please be as generous as you always are.

CAFOD. And the Disasters Emergency Committee is launching a crisis appeal for Afghanistan this week. Across Afghanistan 8 million people are on the brink of famine because of drought, collapsing economy, food shortages, conflict and COVID -19. Women and children are especially at risk. Please pray for them and give generously to the appeal.

See CAFOD website.

Caritas Events

Tuesday 18 January 6-7pm Online Event:

Homelessness

Caritas Plymouth is running an online event on homelessness the 18th of January 2022 in partnership with St Petrocs, Cornwall. Everyone is warmly welcome to attend. The event will reflect on homelessness in our Diocese and what practical actions we can take to reach out to those who are homeless or at risk of homelessness. Please use the following link to register <https://forms.office.com/r/NkUZyhwckf> or email caritas@prcdtr.org.uk

Tuesday 8 February 2022 Refugees and Migrants

Online Event 5-6pm

On the Feast of St Bakhita, all are invited to join Caritas Plymouth for an hour of prayer, reflection and discussion on the challenges facing migrants and refugees and the opportunity to take action, including through community sponsorship. This is a free online event. You can register via this link <https://forms.office.com/r/K3uz5LLY2X> or by emailing caritas@prcdtr.org.uk.

Diocese of Plymouth - Walking Together

We have been receiving lots of feedback from parish groups on our Synodal journey but would love to hear more from those who may not be able to or wish to participate in a group.

There is a short online survey which can be completed anonymously <https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/9MVCQ7M>.

Please share this link with family and friends. If you want to keep in touch with the Synodal Journey, newsletter updates can be found on our website <https://www.plymouth-diocese.org.uk/walking-together-the-process/>

Are you 11 - 17?

Join us in discussion, sharing your thoughts on the future of the catholic church.

From Father Brian

After the seasons of Advent and Christmas we now return to Ordinary Time. This Sunday's Gospel tells us about the miracle of Jesus changing water into wine at a wedding. The Church proclaims that each Mass is like a wedding feast in which Jesus is the bridegroom showing His love for us, His bride, by providing spiritual food and drink through the Eucharist for our inmost needs. Have a good and safe week.

Points to Ponder

The Holy Eucharist is the perfect expression of the love of Jesus Christ for humanity.
(St. Maria Goretti)

The Eucharist is the heart of the Church. Where Eucharistic life flourishes, there the life of the Church will blossom.
(Pope St John Paul II)

The Eucharist is a never-ending sacrifice. It is the sacrament of love, the supreme love, the act of love.
(Katharine Drexel)

Pope's Intentions for January

Prayer intention for human fraternity – we pray for all those suffering from religious discrimination and persecution; may their own rights and dignity be recognized, which originate from being brothers and sisters in the human family.

Please pray for Father Terrance Perkins who died recently, may the Lord grant him eternal rest

Prayer Requests

Please pray for those in the Parish who are sick or housebound or in need of our prayers.
