Helston & Mullion News

A VERY WARM WELCOME

to all who are worshipping with us today.

There is coffee or tea after mass on Sunday in the church hall at Helston.

THIS AFTERNOON Helston's Service for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is being held at St Mary's. The Bishop of Truro is the guest preacher. Please make every effort to attend this, and tell your friends in other churches about it too.

A calendar of the major Feasts & Solemnities in 2022 is available at the back of Church.

We are doing our annual collection of chocolate bars for seafarers, please put these in the usual box. Thank you for those received so far.

The Diocesan Year Book for 2022 is available to buy for £4; please ask Fr Paul for a copy.

By order, our Holy Water stoups are to remain dry; but there are now HOLY WATER DISPENSERS in the porches of both churches. Please bring a little bottle if you wish to take some home.

There are new display stands at the back of both churches.

Please take copies of anything you haven't seen before and/or looks interesting. The letter from the Conference of Bishops of England & Wales about Sundays is there, as is our own Bishop's letter about the latest COVID restrictions for churches.

We desperately need MORE VOLUNTEERS at Helston, especially cleaners – it's only an hour once every three months, so not a great commitment – and counters, also someone (or more) to do the silver and the brass. Visitors to our church notice whether everything is sparkling and clean as much as the liturgy, so it's important to make a good impression. Please speak to Father Paul if you can help.

Falmouth & Mawnan Smith News

First Holy Communion

Classes for the children are cancelled this week. The candidates will be enrolled at 10.30 am Mass on Sunday 30th January.

Holy Water

Is now available in the dispenser in the porch, please bring a container.

Wednesday Evening Mass

Following on from our recent Synodal meetings it has been decided to keep Wednesday Mass at 6.00 pm as this seems to be more convenient for most people.

Apostleship of the Sea

Due to the generosity of the parishioners of Falmouth & Helston, 127 bars of chocolate have been greatly received into our Christmas box. We also received 32 bars from St Augustine's in St Austell.

Not all bars were handed out over the Christmas period, but we now have a lovely supply of chocolate which will be handed out over the next 2/3 months.

These Filipino Seafarers were delighted to receive chocolate along with other goods.

John Pinhay Port Chaplain

Liturgy of the Word for children (children's liturgy)

This is a very important ministry for our children and young people. It presents the liturgy in an age appropriate and accessible way for them so that they have a better understanding of the Word of God.

We need more adults to volunteer to help with this, full training, guidance and all materials will be given. If you think you might be able to help please give your details to the office. A DBS check will be required.

Fairtrade Stall

The Fairtrade stall will be available after Mass at coffee on the third Sunday of each month.

The Christian Life Community (CLC) is not so much an organization but a way of life inspired by the spirituality of St Ignatius.

We meet regularly in small groups to pray and share, supporting one another through the ups and downs of ordinary life. In listening to one another we grow to understand ourselves, deepen our relationship with God and discover more clearly how each one of us is uniquely called to respond to God's love.

Falmouth CLC meet in the backroom of the parish hall every two weeks on a Thursday at 2pm. And would love to welcome new members. Our next meeting is on Thursday 27th January at 1pm.

From Father Brian

We are now well into the week of prayer for Christian Unity. All Christians believe in the power of the cross and the victory of the resurrection. Christ's love creates unity in the midst of diversity. Therefore, may all Christians pray and work together to proclaim the saving Gospel to all the world. Have a good and safe week.

Points to Ponder

It is the Holy Spirit who enables us to love other Christians as Christ loved us.

(Anon)

Only humility will lead us to unity, and unity will lead to peace.

(St. Mother Teresa)

We must learn to live together as brothers and sisters or perish together as fools.

(Martin Luther King Jr.)

Pope's Intentions for January

Prayer intention for human fraternity – we pray for all those suffering from religious discrimination and persecution; may their own rights and dignity be recognized, which originate from being brothers and sisters in the human family.

Please pray for those in the Parish who are sick or housebound or in need of our prayers.
