Bishop Mark's New Appointment

Last Wednesday, it was announced that the Holy Father has appointed Bishop Mark to be the Archbishop of Cardiff and the Bishop of Menevia, these two dioceses being united in persona Episcopi (in the person of the Bishop). This process of transition will take two months, during which time Bishop Mark will continue to lead our diocese with the more limited powers of a Diocesan Administrator. Once Bishop Mark has formally been installed into his new dioceses on 20 June, our Cathedral Chapter of Canons will meet to elect a priest to be our Diocesan Administrator and, with the help of other members of the clergy and diocesan officers, he will lead and oversee the daily life and mission of our diocese, its parishes and schools until a successor to Bishop Mark is appointed by the Holy Father in due course.

During the period until a new diocesan bishop is appointed, the ancient principle sede vacante, nihil innovetur (when the diocese has no bishop, nothing new may be done) must be observed whereby there is a limit to the decisions and actions that can be taken. However, this certainly does not mean everything must come to a halt. The Gospel of Salvation must continue to be proclaimed and the life and mission of the Church in the Diocese of Plymouth carried forward, albeit in anticipation of the gift of a new successor to the Apostles to lead us and, through whose communion with the Bishop of Rome, our diocese is fully united with the Catholic Church throughout the world.

During this time of transition, our primary task as a diocese and in our parishes will be to unite together in earnest prayer that:

- the Holy Spirit will guide all those involved in the process leading to the appointment of a new bishop for our diocese;
- the one who is called to take on this essential apostolic ministry among us will be given the generosity and courage to accept it;
- we - the clergy, consecrated men and women and lay faithful of the diocese - will welcome our new bishop with joy and respond eagerly to his leadership in faith and mission.

A Diocesan Mass of Thanksgiving for the leadership and ministry of Bishop Mark as Bishop of Plymouth will be celebrated at the Cathedral of St Mary and St Boniface, Plymouth, on Monday, 30 May, at 12noon.

A copy of this message is available in Polish, please ask at the office

From Father Brian

We continue our journey through the Easter season by continuing to celebrate Jesus' resurrection from the dead. In the Gospel for this Sunday Jesus and Peter have a special conversation. In this encounter Jesus convinces Peter that he is forgiven for his denial and Peter is now able to move forward, leave behind the past and serve Jesus.

Of course, it is not just Peter that Jesus speaks to, He speaks to us all and encourages us to move away from the pains and failures of the past and to discover a new and better future.

Have a good and safe week

Points to Ponder

Without commitment, nothing happens.

(T.D. Jakes)

Faith is like Wi-Fi. It's invisible but has the power to connect you to what you need.

Pope's Intentions for May

For faith-filled young people. We pray for all young people, called to live life to the fullest; may they see in Mary's life the way to listen, the depth of discernment, the courage that faith generates, and the dedication to service.

Our congratulations and prayers

To Dillon Walter Kennedy who will be baptized after the 10.30 am Mass this Sunday.

Please pray for those in the Parish who are sick or housebound or in need of our prayers.
