Mass Intentions

A recent conversation has prompted me to share these words. I will always try to celebrate Mass on the date requested. However, there will be times when this will not be possible even when you have been given a date for the Mass. Requiem Masses always take priority even over booked Masses. This is because Masses are sometimes booked for weeks ahead and this could result in a family having to wait for a Requiem Mass a considerable time after their loved one died. This would not be desirable, practical and certainly not pastoral. Therefore I ask for your patience and understanding if your booked Mass has to be changed.

St Mary's Fairtrade Stall

As our monthly Fairtrade stall takes place after coffee in the parish hall on the third Sunday of the month, the stall is cancelled this month as the third Sunday in April is Easter Sunday.

From Father Brian

This weekend we celebrate Palm Sunday of The Passion of the Lord and the beginning of Holy Week, the most important week in the Church's year. The heart of Holy Week is of course the Sacred Paschal Triduum, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and on Holy Saturday the Easter Vigil. If you can please try to attend the Triduum celebrations.

At the 10.30 am Mass for Palm Sunday, if you can please assemble in the Parish Hall where the palms will be distributed and blessed and we will then process into the church for the celebration of the Mass.

I wish you all a very fruitful and blessed Holy Week.

Points to Ponder

Holy Week: the week that changed the world continues to change our lives.

(Anon)

Holy Week is a privileged time when we are called to draw near to Jesus: friendship with Him is shown in times of difficulty.

(Pope Francis)

It's a celebration of life over death. The whole message of Holy Week is the message of God to join Him.

(Glenn Duffy)

Pope's Intentions for April
