CARE FOR OUR COMMON HOME: ONLINE EVENT

5-6PM ON TUESDAY 24 MAY

Caritas Plymouth with CAFOD Plymouth is organising an online event from 5-6pm on Tuesday 24 May during Laudato Si' week 2022, to reflect on how we care for our common home and respond to Pope Francis' invitation to create a new kind of solidarity and a spirit of integral ecology. The event will offer an opportunity to think about the challenges and opportunities facing us and how we are called to act.

Resumption of Sunday Obligation

Please be aware that from the Feast of Pentecost the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days will resume. This does not apply to those who are sick and those caring for them

Now that we have journeyed

CALLED & GIFTED

from the preparation of Lent to the action of the Easter season, do you know what spiritual gifts you've been given to help you live out your faith every day? If not, you're missing out on a source of spiritual strength that helps you be the person God intended you to be! The Called and Gifted discernment process is designed to help you learn what the spiritual gifts are and prayerfully discern which gifts the Holy Spirit has given you for the glory of God and the benefit of others.

Over 2000 people across the UK have experienced the Called and Gifted discernment process and, for many, it has led to a more active and fulfilling life. Please visit the Called and Gifted website to see examples of testimonies from previous participants, including an inspiring video testimony by a priest from Leeds Diocese who has experienced Called and Gifted himself and seen the difference it has made in his parish after inviting parishioners to discern their spiritual gifts: <https://www.calledandgifted.org.uk/>

Caritas – Ukrainian Refugees

Caritas Plymouth would like to offer an opportunity for people across the Diocese of Plymouth to come together online to discuss how we are welcoming Ukrainian families into our homes and parishes, to offer mutual support and guidance and to identify any areas where Caritas might be able to offer support. It is an opportunity to consider possible future needs and be open to the wider asylum seeker and refugee needs.

We are offering this online event on Thursday 26 May from 6-7pm.

If you would like to join this informal session, please register here

<https://forms.office.com/r/wRGwA07RdM> and we will send through Zoom details.

EVERYONE – take up your spiritual arms! Come and pray a public Rosary for peace in the Ukraine. Time: 11am on Saturday 28th May; Place: on Lemon Quay, outside the Hall for Cornwall, Truro.

Next Weekend 28th/29th May

There will be a retiring collection for the Plymouth Secular Clergy Fund, which cares for our sick and retired priests.

From Father Brian

We are reaching the end of the Season of Easter. throughout this season we have heard in the readings of how Christ's activity in the world has moved from the historical Jesus Himself to the living Church. It is through the power of the Holy Spirit that this is made possible and it features again in this Sunday's readings. Through the Holy Spirit the Church comes alive being formed into a community that will do all that Jesus commands.

First Holy Communion 2022

My sincere thanks to all those who contributed to our First Holy Communion Mass. It was a beautiful occasion and a special moment not just for the children but for the whole parish community. Have a good and safe week

Points to Ponder

Peace is not peace until it has been tested in the storm.

(Eric Watman)

Peace is the only battle worth waging.

(Albert Camus)

Do not let the behaviour of others destroy your inner peace.

(Dalai Lama)

Pope's Intentions for May

For faith-filled young people. We pray for all young people, called to live life to the fullest; may they see in Mary's life the way to listen, the depth of discernment, the courage that faith generates, and the dedication to service.

Please keep in your prayers our sponsored seminarian in Malawi, Brother Francis Achieng.

Please pray for those in the Parish who are sick or housebound or in need of our prayers.
