Helston & Mullion News

A VERY WARM WELCOME

to all who are worshipping with us today.

There is coffee or tea after mass on Sundays in the church hall at Helston.

ON WEDNESDAY we are hosting a group from Father Paul's & Father Brian's former parish in North Devon organised by the Knights of St Columba. After a Fal River Trip they are coming to St Mary's at 3.30 pm for mass and a cream tea. We hope Helston parishioners will be at the mass and the tea to welcome them.

DIPPING INTO THE CATECHISM. The current weekly sheet (and last week's) is available in the display rack on the table, but all previous weeks are also available from the black folder in the porch. Please help yourself, but let Fr Paul know if any run out.

We are gradually moving back more and more to the ways things were pre-pandemic so there are no more daily mass sheets. As in pre-pandemic days, the daily antiphons are provided for congregational use, but if you wish to follow the readings, etc. you will need to bring a daily missal. If you have an "old" (pre-2010) daily missal then, for the most part, the readings won't have changed, it's only the mass that's different. Some people are using "Magnificat"; or you could use an e-reader (on tablet or mobile phone).

A sheet with the Anthem to Our Lady (said at the end of every mass) on it is also available for those who need it.

Ecumenical events: Degibna Prayer Chapel's list of summer events is on the notice board.

Currently the only YouTube upload of our services is from Mullion, as there has been no volunteer to record and process the mass in Helston. For your information, viewing figures for the Helston recording were usually between 17 and 20 on a Sunday, though more at Mullion, and up to 50 on an occasional weekday. Both Helston and Mullion will still be available as live-streamed services: Helston on our parish website and Mullion on the Church's Facebook page (see front cover). Regretfully, no numbers are available for those who watch the live-stream. After 31st August the presbytery office in Helston will be closed and the telephone will not take any messages. All callers will be asked to re-direct their enquiries to the parish office in Falmouth (numbers on the front page of this bulletin).

PLEASE REMEMBER TO LOOK AT THE NOTICES FOR ALL 4 CHURCHES, AS THERE IS FREQUENTLY IMPORTANT INFORMATION THERE including our Summer Barbecue, the Annual Parish Meeting and the visit of St Bernadette.

Cheque Payments

If you pay the parish by cheque please can you ensure you make your cheque payable to

PRCDTR Falmouth/Helston RC Parish

As the bank/post office will not accept anything else. Thank you

From Father Brian

This weekend we welcome Sister Mary Sebastian IHM who will be making an appeal at all the Sunday Masses on behalf of the Missionary Sisters of England and Wales, I know you will make Sister feel at home and be as generous as you can to support the work of our missionary Sisters.

Have a good and safe week

Points to Ponder

The work of our missionaries is a magnificent expression of the Lord's redeeming Love.

(Todd Christofferson)

The most effective missionaries always act out of love.

(Anon)

Every Christian is either a missionary or an imposter.

(Charles Spurgeon)

Pope's Intentions for August

For small businesses. We pray for small and medium sized businesses; in the midst of economic and social crisis, may they find ways to continue operating, and serving their communities.

Please keep in your prayers our sponsored seminarian in Malawi, Brother Francis Achieng.

Please pray for those in the Parish who are sick or housebound or in need of our prayers.
