Christ the King at Mullion

Fr Andrew is planning a lunch at the Milk Barn following Mass at Mullion on the Feast of Christ the King, details to follow.

From Father Brian

This Sunday's Gospel centres on the truth of the Resurrection. The Gospel reminds us that we are 'children of the Resurrection'. Christ has gone before us. His resurrection is an ever-present comfort to all Christians and our sure hope. Even in the face of death for ourselves or our loved ones, we can be confident that our God is the God of the living and of eternal life.

Have a good and safe week

Points to Ponder

Faith in the Resurrection of Jesus says that there is a future for every human being.

(Pope Benedict XVI)

The goal of human life is not death but resurrection.
