Pilgrimage to Fatima: 11th - 15th May, 2023

Dear Friends,

I have been asked by Tangney Tours to lead a 5 day pilgrimage to Fatima in May. I have been going to Fatima for over 20 years, so it will be wonderful to be returning after a gap of three years because of the pandemic. I have stayed at the hotel we are using a number of times, and know that the accommodation and food are very good. The itinerary and further information and a booking form are at the back of church. If you would like to talk to me about the pilgrimage, please give me a call on 075 4865 4893. It would be great if a number of people from our parish could join me.

Every blessing,
Father Paul.

Saturday 25th March

Falmouth Model Railway Society Exhibition in the hall at Falmouth, 10 am to 4 pm.

Josie Bee

As of April this year our Brownie Pack will celebrate its 70th Anniversary, and Josie Bee, who has been a Uniformed Guider with Cornwall Guiding for over 50 years, both as Guide Guider in St. Agnes, her home village, and here with St. Mary's Brownies as Brown Owl, and for the past few years as Assistant to Elizabeth, is now retiring.

It is essential that if the Pack is to continue a new Assistant Guider must be found to work with Elizabeth. If not the Unit will have to close. Guiding experience is not essential, but useful!! It means one hour per week, for the meetings, with extra hours for training, planning and other County events etc. As a Girl led Organization only young women are asked to apply, and this should be to Miss Elizabeth Bee. Brownie and Guide Leader, on Elizabeth.bee@live.com or 07776116960 or 01326 313048

Celebrate the great Solemnity of the Annunciation

Saturday 25th March 2023

St Mary's Catholic Church Hall, Helston

Alison Davis: Saying "Yes" to Life

12 noon pasty lunch followed by a talk

To mark the great feast of Mary's "yes" at the Annunciation we have a special talk about Alison Davis and her extraordinary "yes" to life. Alison was a pro-abortion atheist who tried to end her life, yet became an inspiring defender of life from conception to natural death and an exemplary Catholic, living in Plymouth diocese until her death in 2013. Though she suffered intensely she radiated joy and many hope a cause for her canonisation will be started soon. The talk will be given by Alison's friend and carer Colin Harte.

In St Mary's Church there will be a Holy Hour with Confessions from 10am and Holy Mass at 11am.

All are welcome. For further details and to request your pasty (including vegetarian options) contact the parish on 01326 312763 or andrew.marlborough@prcdtr.org.uk

From Father Brian

This weekend we celebrate 'Mothering Sunday'. This day gives us all the opportunity to pray and give thanks to mothers, grandmothers and other maternal figures who have had a huge influence on our lives. For those of us who have experienced the loss of our mothers, we commend them to the love and mercy of almighty God. May Mary, the Mother of Jesus and the Mother of the Church intercede for all mothers living and dead. Happy Mothering Sunday to all the mums in the parish.

Have a good and safe week.

Points to Ponder

Sooner or later we all quote our mothers.

(Bern Williams)

Cheerfulness prepares a glorious mind for all the noblest acts.

(St Elizabeth Ann Seton)

Your body cannot heal without play. Your mind cannot heal without laughter. Your soul cannot heal without joy.

Please keep in your prayers our sponsored seminarian in Kenya, Brother Francis Achieng.

Please pray for those in the Parish who are sick or housebound or in need of our prayers.
