Day for Life

A Day for Life reminds us of this teaching. On this weekend there will be a retiring collection to support the Church in protecting the dignity of human life.

CAFOD - Please sign our giant letter as you leave church today - to support our campaign to urge the World Bank to end all policies that restrict farmers' freedoms to choose which seeds they use to grow food. The letter will be at all 4 churches over the next few weeks.

For generations, small-scale farmers have freely used, swapped and shared a wide variety of seeds, best suited to their own environmental conditions.

However, this freedom is under threat as the World Bank supports new laws which force farmers to use seeds sold by big agri-businesses. These seeds often need more fertilisers, destroying soil quality and local biodiversity. Please help us to achieve a sustainable food system by supporting small farmers across the world as they fight for control over their seeds.

THE CASE FOR JESUS

Join us in the hall in Falmouth on June 27th at 6pm to watch the next two of these highly watchable films, (each only about 30 minutes). Refreshments provided. Thereafter we shall show a further two films once a month, July 25th and August 29th for the full story.

From Father Brian

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ also known as Corpus Christi. This feast originated in France in the mid-thirteenth century and was extended to the whole Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264. This feast proclaims that the Eucharist – the Body and Blood of Christ is God’s great gift of love to us. Holy Communion is a sacrament of love. For in Holy Communion, we receive the very person of the risen Christ. At every Mass, through reception of the Body and Blood of Christ the Lord nourishes us by giving us food for our faith journey.

Have a good and safe week.

Points to Ponder

The effect of our sharing in the body and blood of Christ is to change us into what we receive.

(Scott Hahn)

We do not go to Holy Communion because we are good; we go to become good.

(St John Bosco)

In an ever-changing world the Holy Eucharist is a constant reminder of the great reality of God’s changeless love.

(St Mother Teresa)
