The enthralling film series continues on the 25th July with films about two key aspects of the life of Jesus. Firstly, "Why was Jesus crucified? What did he do and say that led to his being condemned to death by the Jewish leaders and executed by the Roman authorities"? Secondly, "What is the evidence for the resurrection of Jesus"? If you can only manage to get to one of this series of film shows we urge you to come to this one. The last session will be held on the 29th August. An invitation to survivors of abuse

The diocese would very much appreciate hearing from people who have a lived experience of abuse, so that we can involve them in the work we are doing to support survivors. We would like to hear survivors' feedback and ideas so that we can improve our response to those who have been hurt by abuse. If you think you might be able to help us in this work, or if you would like to find out more about what we are doing in the diocese to support survivors, please contact: Sophie Scagell (Survivor Support Caseworker) on 01364 645436 / sophie.scagell@prcdtr.org.uk

March for Life

March for Life UK happens in London on Saturday 2nd September. Many are concerned about restrictions on freedom but it's often not until these restrictions affect us personally that we speak up. Abortion destroys the most fundamental freedom, the freedom to live and leaves so many women and men deeply hurting. Join thousands of others at this family-friendly event to speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves. Full details can be found at marchforlife.co.uk

Seafarers and fishers play a vital role in all of our lives, but they often work in difficult, hazardous conditions.

In the last year, more crews have been abandoned by their employers than ever before. Many are still being denied the right to leave their ships for even a short break away from the relentless noise and pressure onboard. Many are reporting more stress and poorer mental health.

Sea Sunday is today, 9th July. It is when the church prays for all those who live and work at sea.

Your support will make a big difference to seafarers and fishers in need.

You can donate in church, by visiting www.stellamaris.org.uk/donate, or by texting "SEA to 70460 to donate £5.

This collection is vital to enable Stella Maris to continue its important work, so please give generously. Thank you.

NEWS FROM OUR SPONSORED SEMINARIAN IN KENYA.

We are pleased to have received a letter from Brother Francis Achieng at Christ the King major Seminary in Nyeri , Kenya . He is now in his seventh year of training for the priesthood and is looking forward to being ordained Deacon soon. He thanks us for sponsoring him both financially and for our prayers. He tells us that Kenyan church and Kisumu's Church is vibrant and full of life, bringing the good news to all corners of the diocese and promoting peace and awareness among her faithful. (his letter is on the porch notice board in Falmouth)

Our parish donates £500 annually to the Society of St Peter the Apostle. Since the year 2000 we have sponsored 5 priests. We also promise to keep them Bro Francis in our prayers. He is grateful for our support and sends his good wishes and thanks

From Father Brian

This weekend we celebrate Sea Sunday. Every year churches around the world celebrate this Sunday. It is a day for people to come together to pray for seafarers and fishers, and thank them for the vital role they play in all our lives.

Stella Maris is the official maritime charity of The Catholic Church supporting seafarers, fishers, and their families in the UK and around the world. To help in their important work there will be a retiring collection at all the weekend Masses.

Have a good and safe week.

Points to Ponder

God buries our sins in the depths of the sea and then puts up a sign that reads “No Fishing”.
(Corrie ten Boom)

Grace is the voice that calls us to change and then gives us the power to pull it off.
(Max Lucado)

Choose faith instead of fear and life will become a lot more fun.
(Dave Willis)

Pope’s intentions for July

For a Eucharistic life: we pray that Catholics may place the celebration of the Eucharist at the heart of their lives, transforming human relationships in a very deep way and opening to the encounter with God and all their brothers and sisters.

Please keep in your prayers our sponsored seminarian in Kenya, Brother Francis Achieng.

Please pray for those in the Parish who are sick or housebound or in need of our prayers.
