From Father Brian

I write this from my holiday home in Ireland. I know that you must have been surprised, shocked and saddened by the news of Father Andrew leaving the parish without any warning. The decision was made by those in authority in the Diocese and would not have been made lightly. As you know all priests make a promise of obedience at their ordination and a priest can be asked to move at anytime. The welfare and wellbeing of Father Andrew would have been an important consideration in the decision to move him. I would like to thank Father Andrew for his loving and devoted ministry while he was with us. He reached out to many in his short time in the parish.

This is a difficult and challenging time for us all and may all of us be united in our efforts to continue to make our community a place where the love and values of the Gospel are shared and proclaimed. Obviously, I am giving much thought and prayer to how the parish will move forward now we no longer have Father Andrew with us. Have a good and safe week. With my prayers and blessing. Father Brian

Join thousands of others at this family-friendly event to speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves. Full details can be found at marchforlife.co.uk
