THE CASE FOR JESUS

The enthralling series concludes on the 29th August with the last session dealing with the resurrection of Jesus Christ. To be held in the hall in Falmouth at 6pm. Refreshments provided.

The reason for the change is that I have been unable to link the projector to my computer so the session will be audio only, (which most of the parishioners last month thought was an improvement).

March for Life

March for Life UK happens in London on Saturday 2nd September. Many are concerned about restrictions on freedom but it's often not until these restrictions affect us personally that we speak up. Abortion destroys the most fundamental freedom, the freedom to live and leaves so many women and men deeply hurting. Join thousands of others at this family-friendly event to speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves. Full details can be found at marchforlife.co.uk

From Fr Brian

With the departure of Father Andrew, the celebration of Masses in our four churches will need to change. Supply for our current Sunday Masses has been arranged for August. However, from 2nd/3rd September the Sunday Masses will be as follows: Saturday evening 6.00 pm in Falmouth, Sunday 9.00 am at Helston and 10.45 am in Falmouth. Additionally, there will be a Saturday morning Mass at Mullion at 10.00 am where the liturgy and readings will be for the Sunday. Weekday Masses will be celebrated at Falmouth with a Wednesday Mass at 12 noon at Helston. Mass at 10.00 am on Thursday will continue to be celebrated at Mawnan Smith. I am well aware that all this is not ideal but at this stage I feel it is the best solution. You will appreciate that because of the extra demands now placed upon me my visits to the sick and the housebound will be less frequent. For our communities to continue to grow in faith and witness to the Gospel all of us will need to play our part and be willing to share our gifts, talents and time.

Have a good and safe week

Points to Ponder

Courage doesn't always roar. Sometimes courage is the quiet voice at the end of the day saying,
"I will try again tomorrow."

(Mary Anne Radmacher)

Live by faith, grow in grace, walk in love.

(Anon)

Only in darkness can you see the stars.

(Martin Luther King jr.)
