Books from Bethany House

Over 250 books have now been rehomed! The remainder will be collected from Bethany House by a bookseller at the beginning of September so if you want any you have limited time. Please contact the office or Paul Murphy on paul.murphy.ref@gmail.com.

THE CASE FOR JESUS

The enthralling series concludes on the 29th August with the last session dealing with the resurrection of Jesus Christ. To be held in the hall in Falmouth at 6pm. Refreshments provided.

The reason for the change is that I have been unable to link the projector to my computer so the session will be audio only, (which most of the parishioners last month thought was an improvement).

Receiving Holy Communion

Following the recommendation of the Bishops of England and Wales communion by intinction (i.e. dipping the Host in the chalice) is not allowed. Also, please remember to consume the Host in the presence and sight of the minister distributing the Host.

Day Out from Helston

Proposed visit to Buckfast Abbey and the Buckfastleigh to Totnes railway in October. In order to assess interest and if you are interested please leave your name on the list in the Church porch or contact Margaret Chambers on 07879402932.

From Fr Brian

The readings for the Sunday Masses proclaim through Jesus that God has no favourites. God gives His love and mercy to everyone. In His love God calls people of every race and nation to accept His gift of salvation. God sent His only Son Jesus to bring redemption to all who place their hope, trust, and faith in Him.

Have a good and safe week
