Pope's intentions for October

For the Synod: we pray for the Church, that she may adopt listening and dialogue as a lifestyle at every level and allow herself to be guided by the Holy Spirit towards the peripheries of the world.

A VERY WARM WELCOME to all who are worshipping with us today.

Teas and coffees are served every Sunday in the hall following Mass at both Helston and Falmouth – please join us.

This weekend

21st/22nd October is 'World Mission Sunday', a time we pray for the spread of the Gospel and the evangelization of all peoples. To help the Universal Catholic Church in this mission there will be a retiring collection at all the Sunday Masses.

Essential works at Falmouth

There will be NO weekday Masses at St Mary's Falmouth in the week beginning 6th November or 13th November and the church will be closed. This is to allow for essential work to be carried out.

Please accept our apologies for the inconvenience. The Sunday Masses will be celebrated as normal.

The Sisters at Bethany House

Would like to thank all those who came to wish them well as they move to their new locations. Thank you for all the cards and gifts.

Several people have asked if we plan to have a collection for the Sisters but they have said they would prefer that anyone wanting to contribute should send a donation to CAFOD

01326 314540

Going into hospital? Or know someone who has been admitted?

If you are going into hospital please let Father Brian know. He can arrange to anoint you before you go and also arrange for communion to be brought to you whilst you are there if you would like.

If you are admitted as an emergency please ask your nearest and dearest to let the parish priest know and inform the staff that you are a Roman Catholic.

If you are aware that someone has been admitted please let Father Brian know, he will arrange either to visit and anoint himself or for the hospital chaplain to do so if the patient would like that.

Polite reminder

Please remember to turn your mobile phone off in church.

From Fr Brian

This weekend we celebrate 'World Mission Sunday'. This weekend is our opportunity to show love and solidarity to our brothers and sisters overseas who share our faith. In offering our prayers, we join with missionaries everywhere in communion and compassion to support them in spreading the Good News, and by holding a retiring collection at all Masses we respond to Christ's call to feed the hungry and clothe the naked.

Have a good and safe week

Points to Ponder

A smile is the light in your window that tells others that there is a caring, sharing person inside.

(Denis Waitley)

It's not how much we give, but how much we put into giving.

(St. Mother Teresa)

Love only grows by sharing. You can only have more for yourself by giving it away to others.

(Brian Tracy)

Please keep in your prayers our sponsored seminarian in Kenya, Brother Francis Achieng, and Hugo Lomax seminarian from our own parish studying at Allen Hall.

Please pray for those in the Parish who are sick or housebound or in need of our prayers.
