Essential works at Falmouth

There will be NO weekday Masses at St Mary's Falmouth in the week beginning 6th November or 13th November and the church will be closed. This is to allow for essential work to be carried out.

Please accept our apologies for the inconvenience. The Sunday Masses will be celebrated as normal.

Polite reminder

Please remember to turn your mobile phone off in church.

November

is a month when we as Catholics remember our departed loved ones. In our churches at Falmouth and Helston there are Books of Remembrance and you are invited to write the names of those faithful departed you would like to be remembered. These books will be brought up to the altar at all Masses during November.

Going into hospital? Or know someone who has been admitted?

If you are going into hospital please let Father Brian know. He can arrange to anoint you before you go and also arrange for communion to be brought to you whilst you are there if you would like.

If you are admitted as an emergency please ask your nearest and dearest to let the parish priest know and inform the staff that you are a Roman Catholic.

If you are aware that someone has been admitted please let Father Brian know, he will arrange either to visit and anoint them himself or for the hospital chaplain to do so if the patient would like that.

Stella Maris woolly hat appeal

As the winter is now fast approaching, we like to give out woolly hats to the seafarers visiting our ports in Falmouth & Fowey. Last time we made an appeal to our knitters, they responded with a deluge of woolly wonders. Our hat supply is rather low, so any help would be gratefully received.

I can collect, just give me a ring on 07738761157
