CANDLES FOR UKRAINE

On the 7th January 2023, 28year old Chris Parry from Truro was killed in Ukraine whilst helping to rescue Ukrainians from war torn areas and get them to safety.

Chris's parents are carrying on his mantle and travelling as part of the convoys to Ukraine taking much needed medical supplies, generators and equipment to those who are suffering through the Invasion, and are now living in unimaginable makeshift conditions, proving extremely hard, especially through the cold hard winters experienced in Ukraine.

We have been told by Mrs Parry that there is a great need for the Humble Candle!

Their next convoy will be travelling to Ukraine in the middle of January; and we are hoping to collect Candles for the Parry's to take out with them on this trip.

A box will be in Church UNTIL after 10:45 Mass on Sunday 7th January for any candles you may wish to donate. Thank you.

Can You Help??

We are in real need of volunteers to help with a variety of roles in the church. We especially need welcomers, readers and collectors. The more volunteers we have the fewer times you would be asked to help.

There are lots of other ways to get involved – if you have a talent please don't hide it!

Living with Loss

Julie and the team are taking a break and the next Living with Loss meeting will be on Tuesday 19th March.

Homelessness – What can we do? – 17 January 2024 6-7pm Online

According to the charity Crisis, on a given night around 1 in 100 households in England are experiencing the worst forms of homelessness. Forecasts show homelessness rising significantly in the immediate future, with inflation squeezing real incomes and increasing poverty and destitution, alongside rising private rents and evictions. Many people in our Diocese will be affected by this housing crisis but it can be difficult to know how to help.

Why not join Caritas Diocese of Plymouth on Zoom on Wednesday 17th January from 6.00pm-7.00pm to pray and reflect on this important issue and to hear from charities across our Diocese about what they are doing and how we can respond. St Petrocs Cornwall and Routes to Roots based in Poole will be sharing their work and insights. Please register to receive the Zoom details <https://forms.office.com/e/VVp5t5qU7F>

Taize Service

From Fr Brian

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. I would like to thank our parish family sincerely for the Christmas offerings, gifts, cards, and best wishes. I was overwhelmed by your kindness, generosity, and thoughtfulness. I am sorry that I cannot express my gratitude individually and personally. Please believe me I never take your support and friendship for granted. I would also like to thank the very many in all our four churches who contributed in anyway to the preparation and the celebration of the Christmas Masses.

I wish you all a very happy and peaceful New Year

Points to Ponder

Family means no one gets left behind or forgotten.

(David Ogden Stiers)

If the family were a boat, it would be a canoe that makes no progress unless everyone paddles.

(Letty Cottin Pogrebin)

Families are like branches on a tree. We grow in different directions, yet our roots remain as one.

(Anon)

Please pray for Paul Gillan, son of Deacon Bill and Julie Gillan, who died on last week.

May he rest in peace and rise in glory.

Please keep in your prayers our sponsored seminarian in Kenya, Brother Francis Achieng, and Hugo Lomax seminarian from our own parish studying at Allen Hall.

Please pray for those in the Parish who are sick or housebound or in need of our prayers.
